McMASTER UNIVERSITY
OFFICE OF THE CHANCELLOR

HAMILTON, ONTARIO

To the Graduating Classes:

In addressing the members of an English University a year or two ago, an outstanding British leader in thought and in service said, "Those words 'I am' are pregnant words, the most pregnant that human lips can utter". For it is when we say "I am" that we must needs say "I mean to be" and also "I mean to do". It is just the moral courage and the unselfish intention contained in the implication of these few monosyllables that the world needs from university graduates today.

Not to be what others are or to do what others do, but to dare to be what we know we ought to be and to do what humanity at large needs to have done, will test the value of university training and of our worthiness to be "admitted" to that great guild of university men and women the wide world over. Only thus will we have the right to say "I am".

REV. PRINCIPAL JOHN MACNEILL, D.D.

The passing of the Principal of Theology on February 10, 1937, removed from the University a beloved teacher, and from the religious life of Canada a leader whose fame as a preacher was in every place. To Rev. John MacNeill many honours came, from the day he became minister of First Baptist Church, Winnipeg, but it was his twenty-four years from 1906 to 1930 in the pastorate of Walmer Road Baptist Church, Toronto, that made his chief reputation. For many years that spacious building was filled to capacity by people eager to hear one who made the things of Christ clear and compelling. When he came to the staff of McMaster, Dr. MacNeill was President of the Baptist World Alliance, and part of his first two years as Principal had necessarily to be spent touring abroad. But he succeeded wonderfully in setting his hand to the new task of training men to preach, and the students who passed through his hands were given a searching, thorough, kindly discipline. He belonged to the whole University, however, for even those students who never met him in the class-room were proud of his place in the church life of the nation, and valued his influence upon their own religious life. The student body of 1937 mourns this great graduate of the class of 1896 whose going cast so deep a shadow across the life of McMaster this year.

YEAR '37 SONG

When our college years are o'er,
We will remember those days of yore,
How Thirty-Seven played the game,
To bring McMaster their share of her fame
May other years maintain our theme
No matter how great the odds may seem.
One Nine Three Seven pledge,
Mac your constant loyalty,—
To keep her name supreme.

YEAR '37 YELL

Beta Lamma Pi
Rho Khi Si
All Hail Thirty Seven
Never Say die.
Jigger boom, jigger boom,
Jigger boom bah,
Thirty Seven, Thirty Seven,
Rah! Rah! Rah!

James S. Abra

OTTAWA

General Arts

Came to McMaster from Nepean High School. Has a distinct weakness for women. Played Senior foot-ball as a senior and as a freshman. Winner of the Intermediate Intercollegiate Hurdles (IV). Stalwart member of the Intermediate Basketball team all four years. Plans eventually to follow architecture having abandoned his plans for a career as a matinee idol.

Elizabeth Blair Acheson

HAMILTON

General Arts

Betty came to McMaster from Delta, to be a staunch supporter of all undergraduate activites. A member of her senior year executive.

Favourite sport—golf.

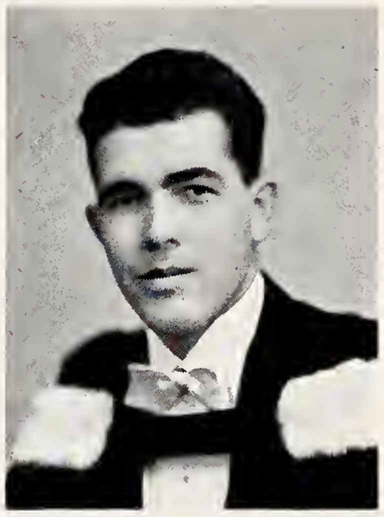
After graduation she is looking forward to Normal School and then a teaching profession.

Doris Jean Ansell

BRANTFORD

Honour French and German

Having matriculated from Brantford C. I., Doris came to McMaster with a yen for new fields to conquer—scholastic fields. The chief obstacle to her happiness was Monday lectures which thwarted her desire for bigger and better week-ends. Favourite expression—Will you—won't you—can't I coax you?



Leonard E. Barlow

HAMILTON

History and Political Economy

Len is a product of Westdale Collegiate and has continued to make friends at McMaster as he did at Collegiate. Len was a valued member of the water polo team in his sophomore year and has two years experience with the board of publications. He plans a business career when he graduates.

Favourite pastime—studying French . . .

Richard T. Beaverstock

HAMILTON

History

Came to McMaster from Albert College to major in bridge and minor in history. Quoted as an authority on the former.

Favourite pastime— ? ? ?

Future—haunting common rooms of Knox College during lectures. A "big" asset to the ministry.

Ernest Albert Berry

BELLEVILLE

Honour Mathematics and Physics

As a product of the Belleville Collegiate, Ernie came to McMaster to follow up his interests in Mathematics. And when these said interests were not pressing down too heavily upon him, he was always an active attendant at the Math. and Science Clubs. A student of sterling character, he hopes some day in the course of time and through a course at O.C.E. to make his way in this world of ours.

Phyllis Margaret Bethune

HAMILTON

General Course

Came from Hamilton Central to grace McMaster with her sweet disposition and charming smile. She has participated in inter-year athletics and was an excellent social convener for '37 in her Senior year. Best of luck, Phyllis!

Howard G. Binkley

HAMILTON

English Option

Disinclined to the effort of exercise, and with a strong disposition to inactivity, his most sanguine hopes will be realized should he graduate. He leaves McMaster with distinct disappointment, living in the fond hope that he may never write another obit.

IN ARTS

Jessie Seaton Bishop

HAMILTON

Honour French and English

Originally of Montreal, Jessie graduated from Central Collegiate and came to McMaster to improve her Montreal French. She has been an interested supporter of dramatics and an efficient worker on various committees, including the 1936 Mac Formal Committee. She has shown McMaster her ability and her pleasant personality.

Campbell Moir Bower

HAMILTON

Honour Biology

As a boy Cam went to Delta, but came to Mac to be a "College Man". Biology offered to him the greatest challenge, for he intends to pursue graduate studies in this field. We are all aware of his ability in Art and Music, but perhaps we didn't know that he is the best-tempered man around Mac.

A. Balfour Bowron

HAMILTON

Science

Another Delta man who came to Mac to study science. While here, is usually found around Hamilton Hall preparing himself for a future in Canadian Industry. He has been a member of the Science Club.

Edith Ethel Louise Bridges

CRANBROOK

English

Took her sophomore year at Brandon College, then came to Mac "to become civilized". But civilization can't compete with the Rocky Mountains, so Louise is going West again for good after a year at McGill.

Pet Aversion—English riding saddles.
Ambition—to see Egypt.

George Bryant

HAMILTON

Political Economy

He came to McMaster from Westdale Collegiate and has been a participant of all inter-year sports and a member of the Men's Pol. Econ. Club. His favourite pastimes are bridge and dancing. His future plans are any job making enough to get married on.

May his Economics help him!

Beatrice Campbell

GODERICH

History Option

Bea, a graduate of Goderich Collegiate Institute, came from the north to grace McMaster with her charming smile and consistent sweetness of disposition. She has participated in many Mac activities. Member of M.W.C.U., M.S.V., Opera Society (II, III), Women's Choir (IV). Favourite expression: "pardon me for saying this but . . ."

Meryl Rena Carrol

HAMILTON

Honour English and French

Came from Westdale C.I. to enliven McMaster with her exuberance and enthusiasm. Her activities consist of being Social Convenor (III), and badminton.

Favourite pastime, "Jessie" (?) and guessing Riddles. Plans to head for O.C.E.

Marion Georgina Chapman

HAMILTON

Science

A dashing young lady with original wit and unlimited conversational ability. Sleepy for early morning lectures, entertaining for lunch hours, amusing for lab. periods, and free (?) for the evening. That's Marion ! !

Cheerio and happy landings to one of the 4 H's.

John D. Charlton
HAMILTON
Science

Developing an interest in Science at Westdale Collegiate, Jack came to McMaster, scalpel in one hand and test tube in the other. Interested in Music, Badminton and Advertising. "Blew his own horn" in the band. Member of the Science Club. Treasurer of the Senior Year.

Sidney John Coombe
HAMILTON
Science

Took off from Delta C. I. and landed at Mac. An active employee of the Sil.: Reporter, Sports Ed., Candid Commentator and Ass. Ed.; Treas. of Sophs., Advertising Manager of Mac. Formal and Publicity Agent for the University. All-round Athletic ability. Dynamic individualist but a good team man. Cheerful, popular and will be missed.

Doris P. Coverdale
CANFIELD
Honour English and History

Boarded the "educational express" at Cayuga High School and headed for O.C.E. Stopped at Mac to tune in on the Choral Society, be Year Rep. and Vice-Pres. of M.W.C.U., balance the books of the M.S.V. and delve into International Relations.

Favourite pastime—lending notes.

William Brenton Cunningham
HAMILTON
Honour Chemistry

On graduating from Central C. I. Brent decided to become a chemist. Since then he has spent his days washing test tubes and his nights answering telephones. Sloppy chemists don't live long but Brent is careful—seldom "ruthless". Next year will find him back doing post-graduate work in his chosen field of science.

Jean Runette Chubbuck
HAMILTON
General Arts

She came from Westdale and Strathallan and brightened McMaster's corridors with her mad-cap, engaging personality. She's a sports enthusiast of the first order, entering into badminton, fencing, equitation, baseball, basketball and swimming. She rates intercollegiate in tennis and badminton. Anyone who knows Jean is assured of her genius of getting along with people and life.

Doris Jean Corman
HAMILTON
Honour English and History

Graduated from Saltfleet High School with high honours and continued the good work at Mac.

Future—uncertain.

"Work fascinates me. I could sit and look at it for hours".

Reginald K. Crouch
HAMILTON
Honour Political Economy

Clarence B. Dales
FERGUS
Political Economy

Came to Mac from Fergus High School to acquire a taste for Economics. He enjoys a good time and when not busy, likes to study.

IN ARTS

Hugh Dalzell

PORT ARTHUR

Honour English and History

Queen's Summer School, three years teaching experience and McMaster (Rugby '35, Soccer '36, Hockey '35, '36, Oratory Gold Medal '35, N.F.C.U.S. Debater '36, developed an athlete, a scholar and a fine little man, who will be a credit to his profession—teaching.

J. Marman H. Davison

HAMILTON

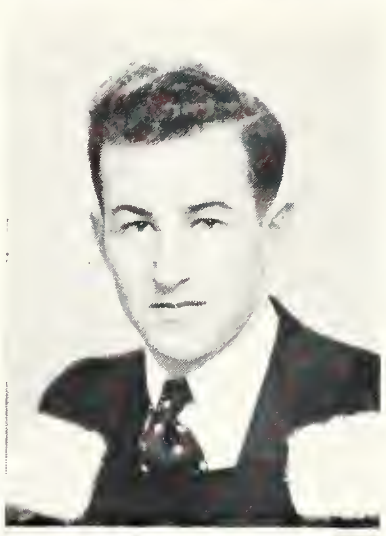
Honour French and German

Came to McMaster from the noble precincts of Central Collegiate. Was member of Modern Language Club.

Favourite Pastime—Music.

Marmon will be especially remembered by his friends for many delightful evenings spent around the Piano.

Future—Business or Musical Profession.



Ronald Reid Dennis

OTTAWA

History and Economics

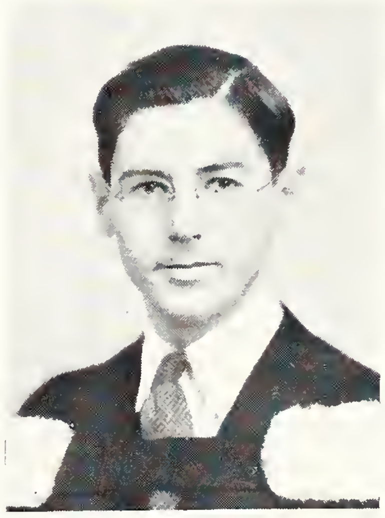
Graduate of Glebe Collegiate. At McMaster, basketball manager (II-IV), Pol. Econ. Club member, football rooter and bad actor of Edwards. Ronnie's interests seem to be as varied as they are numerous. The best wishes and confidence of his fellows attend him as he leaves us to fight his battle with the world which has always offered him a good laugh. His future plans are indefinite but no doubt colossal.

James Malcolm Dingwall

HAMILTON

Honour Political Economy

"Mac" came to McMaster from Westdale Collegiate to become an economist on an H.O.C. scholarship. Known as the "star" to his friends Mac proved to be a versatile athlete, excelling in basketball. As a shy member of the Pol. Econ. Club Executive he helped to bar women from its meetings. President of the Athletic Executive. Pastime—coach of women's basketball team.



Horace A. Dulmage

TORONTO

Philosophy

Matriculated from Scarborough C.I. in 1928 with Goforth and Baird Scholarships. Spent several years with the Canada Life Assurance Company. Graduated from Toronto Bible College in 1934. Has been student-pastor at Thamesville during his course at McMaster. President of the Philosophy Club, 1936-37.

Future—On to Theology.

Frank R. Dunn

HAMILTON

Honour Science

Frank came to Mac from Delta C. I. with the Rotary Club Scholarship. Here he interested himself in Science in general and Chemistry in particular, played Inter-year Rugby and Hockey, and was a member of the Science Club. He spent his summers dispensing Petrol at a local service station.

Future plans—What Have You?

Ruth Dunn

HAMILTON

Honour Latin and English

Ruth entered Mac with the Kennedy C. I. Honour Award, great energy, fondness for Sports and a desire to think in Latin. Thus: an efficient Soph. Secretory, a popular Sec't'y-Treas., W.S.B. (III), and finally an intelligent, amiable, capable head girl.

To all this Ruth would reply modestly, "Oh-h-h - - - - - No.!"

Helen Eubank

CAYUGA

Honour French and German

A graduate of Cayuga H.S., Helen has pursued her linguistic ambitions at Mac and intends to continue them at O.C.E. She has been a participant in inter-year athletics, a valuable member of the Modern Language Club (Sec. III), Operatic Society and Women's Choir (IV). Helen will be pleasantly remembered for her contagious "Joie de vivre."

James Ferguson

HAMILTON

Philosophy

President, Men's Debating Union and I.U.D.L. (IV). Debating "M" (II). Soccer (III, IV).

This son of Scotia, an ardent follower of Immanuel Kant, is rapidly developing into a great exponent of John Knox and will apparently become a leader in the Church and a follower in the Manse.

Future—Knox College.

Mary Helen Fish

TIPTON, MICH.

French

Came to McMaster with a reputation for hard work and scholarship. Her chief occupations here have been Choral Society, Managing the Girls' Hiking Club and looking after the Wallingford books.

Favorite expression—Petey Dink ! !

Next Year—Michigan State Normal College.

Ruth Caroline Fletcher

GLANFORD

Honour English and History

Early education in the little red schoolhouse. Graduated from Hamilton Central Collegiate to enter Mac.

Immediate future—O.C.E.

"All things I thought I knew, but now confess
The more I know I know, I know the less".

Dorothy Mary Foster

HAMILTON

Honour Classics

From England, she graduated from Delta.

Chief Interest—Dramatics.

As leading lady for the Classical Club she played Antigone. Her superb "Elizabeth" in the Dramatic Society's triumph, "Elizabeth the Queen", will never be forgotten.

"Lizzie" is also addicted to the ladies choir, and looking for Millie Hall.

William David Franklin

BURLINGTON

Political Economy

Came to Mac with a legal career in mind but now anticipates a business administration degree at Harvard. Well-known for his smiling countenance and his disdain (?) for the fairer sex. As a member of the Pol. Econ. Club, Bill has learned that financial success means how to keep from holding the bag. Favourite occupation—Master salesman.

Lloyd Garthson

HAMILTON

Political Economy

Came to McMaster to learn Economy. Drank at the well of Political Economy and Philosophy and now realizes how much he doesn't know.

Member: Political Economy Club, International Relations Club, Philosophy Club.

Played Inter-year Basketball and Football.

Likes—Selling.

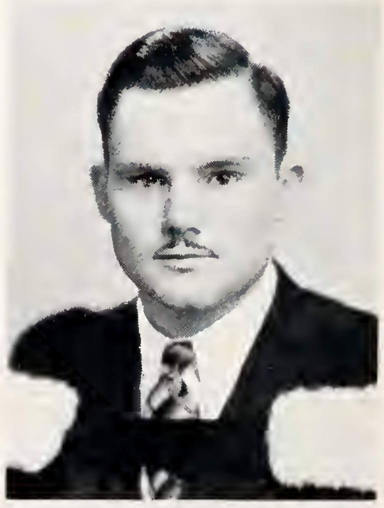
Dislikes—Essays and Exams.

Charlotte M. Gibson

HAMILTON

Honour English and History

Lottie came from Delta Collegiate to McMaster via street-car and the gravel path. At Mac she did not Neill to anyone as far as academic standing goes. In her Junior year won the Smith-Burr Memorial Prize in English and History. Next year will find her at O.C.E.



Orie A. Gilmore

LOWBANKS

Honour Mathematics and Physics

He has a peculiar weakness for scholarships. Leaving Dunnville High School he captured a second Carter Scholarship and the McNee Scholarship in Mathematics and Physics. He has been an active Maths. Club member, its Sec.-Treas. and its President; a Science Club member, member of Conversat. Committee; inter-collegiate wrestler.

His future plans are O.C.E.

IN ARTS

John R. Grace

HAMILTON

Science

Graduate of Westdale C. I. Spent most of his four years in the labs., but also found time for Tennis, Badminton and Bowling. Interested in Classical Music (Piano) for which he holds standing from the University of Toronto. Has hopes for a future in Biochemical Research.

"Ah, but a man's reach should exceed his grasp
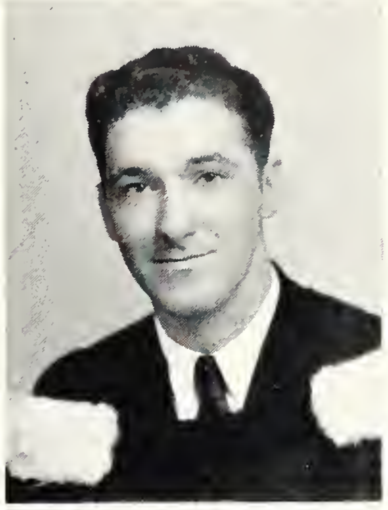
Or what's a heaven for?"
Browning.

Roberta Alice Gray

CHICAGO

General Arts

She graduated from Nickolas Senn High School and preferred a quiet (?) Canadian University to the wiles of the windy city. She has been an active member of the Operatic Society, English Club, Modern Lit. Club, International Relations Club and Philosophy Club. We remember her as Wallingford Musicale Convenor. Her future—Business college and travelling.



Francis Lawrence Green

HAMILTON

Honour Science

Francis came to McMaster from Cathedral High to learn some science. He was bounced around on a wrestling mat for two years. A member of the Science Club and Journal Club '37 and took part in the conversat '35-'37.

Weakness—Getting nick-names.

Future—Medical Technology Course at the San.

Earl Vernon Groat

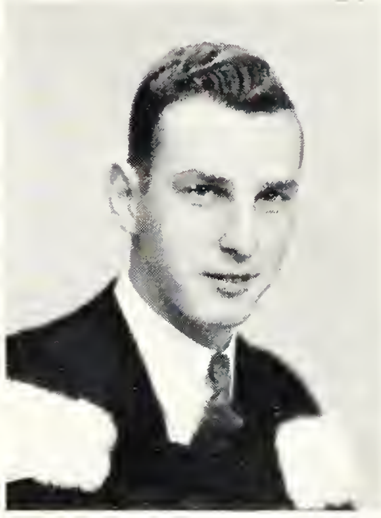
HAMILTON

Honour French and German

Born in Norwich, came to Mac from St. Catharines and Delta Collegiate Institutes. Member of Modern Language Club (I, II, IV); Assistant Chapel Pianist in '35. Has a weakness for radio, magazines and music.

Chief aversion—Routine study.

Future—Teaching.



Ralph C. Haist

FENWICK

Honour Science

Attention—Ralph Haist, scientist, financier, musician and athlete! Ralph has been a loyal science club member and a member of Conversat. Committee (IV). He showed executive abilities as a student council rep. and its treasurer. He was the president of Mac's Brass Band (IV). His future is O.C.E. or research.

Alvin Christie Hamill

HAMILTON

General Arts

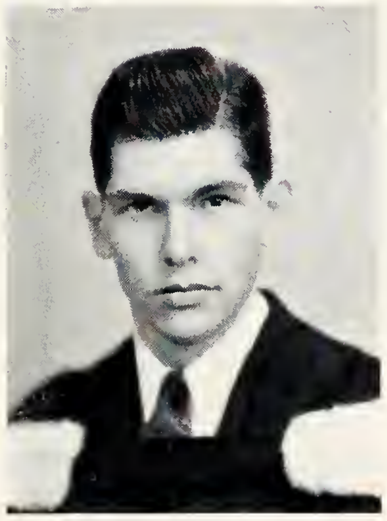
Alvin is a graduate of Chatsworth Continuation School, Owen Sound Collegiate, and Toronto Normal School. With a view to the Baptist Ministry he has studied dramatics at Mac, "human nature" at Hunstville, and came to "grips" with real life at Bigwin Inn.

Helen Norma Hardy

REGINA

General Arts

Hardy came to us from out Prairie-way and has never quite lived it down. Famous for Swimming, Basketball, selling Marmors, tickets and things, and for putting the Gymnasium Subscription Fund on a working basis. Can't decide on a career but whatever it is she'll do it thoroughly.



Robert Hamilton Hubbard

HAMILTON

General Arts

Has spent his time at McMaster between studies and work in the Fine Arts Department. In the summer he spends several months amid the various ancient and modern tomes of the McMaster Library. He hopes to take up library work in earnest, beginning next year at the University of Michigan.

Kathleen Clare Hunt

HAMILTON

General Arts

Kay learned to make herself heard over the roar of Niagara Falls at the Loretto Convent High School. She came to Mac in 1934 to broaden her mind and all things in it. Meantime she has acquired an astounding appreciation of the Fine Arts and the ability to discuss almost anything. — An awful tease, but such fun to tease, is our Kay.

Mary Aileen Jamieson

HAMILTON

History

Came to McMaster from Strathallan School. Interested in Sports. Member of McMaster Ski Club. Member of Badminton, Swimming and Intermediate Basketball teams.

Albin T. Jousse

VANKLEEK HILL

Science

Graduation from the Vankleek Hill Collegiate, followed by the study of Optometry at the U. of T. prepared the way for four years of work. Answering the call of medicine via the route of Science Option at McMaster, Al. hopes to register in Meds. 4T2. He has been a valuable member of the Science Club (II, IV) and a Lab. Assistant (IV).

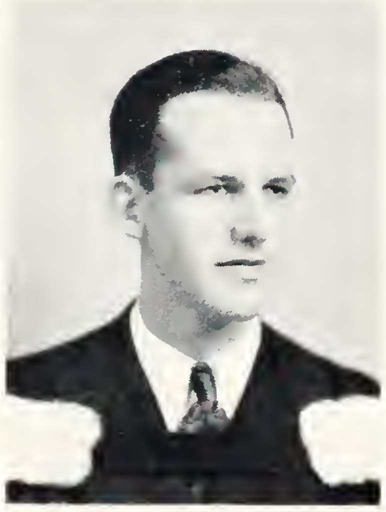
Fern Eleanor Kelly

HAMILTON

Honour English and History

Content to work behind the scenes, Fern has lent enthusiastic support whenever needed. The least of her virtues is procrastination—especially for early morning Lectures.

Favourite Haunt—The front row in Student Assembly.



Edward Kendall

GRAVENHURST

Political Economy

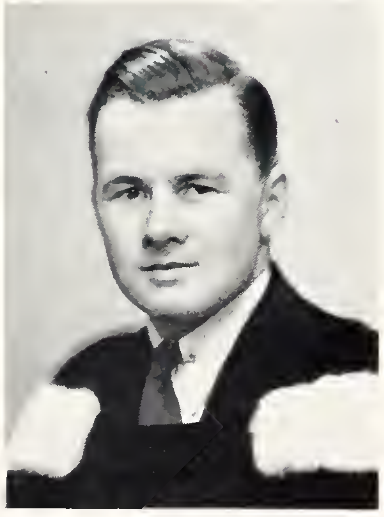
Ed. came to McMaster from Pickering College to ponder the mystics of economics and the dramatic art. As president of the Dramatic Society and assistant of every other McMaster activity he made many friends and is generally known as a "good fellow." His first love is boats and he is expected to top the achievements of Gar Wood himself.

Margaret Kenny

HAMILTON

Political Economy

Born in Lethbridge, Alberta, Margaret came to Hamilton, graduated from Westdale Collegiate. Her outside activities are music and badminton. Her future plans are business and we are sure her efficient manner and quiet charm will bring her success.



James Foster Kilgour

HAMILTON

Political Economy

Received his earlier education at Westdale Collegiate. Foster takes an active interest in swimming and has been a mainstay of the water polo team for the last three years. Manager of swimming and water polo (IV). Favourite expression, "The car is bust again." Member of Pol. Econ Club (III, IV); Ski Club (IV). Plans to take dentistry at Toronto.

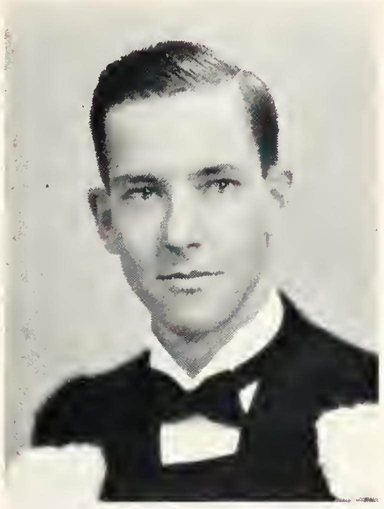
G. Dalton Kirk

BRACEBRIDGE

Honour English and History

After graduation from Bracebridge High School, attended Normal, and then taught Public School a number of years. Realizing the value of further education, decided on a four year course at McMaster. Interested in Debating. Plans to continue teaching.

IN ARTS



Graham Kneale

BRANTFORD

Pass French

Graduated from Brantford C. I. in 1934.
Pass French.
Pet aversion—Gushing women.
Favourite expression—"Shucks".
Summer occupations—Selling insurance and driving.
University interest — "bee - oo - ti - ful girls."
Honorary member of the Pagan Club.
Hobby—Exploring the book-stacks.
Future plans—Business career.

Vernon Kneale

BRANTFORD

Political Economy

Graduated from Brantford C. I. and Hamilton Normal but saw the error of his ways and came to Mac. Skit artist and interior decorator. Vern's motto is: Anything for a laugh.

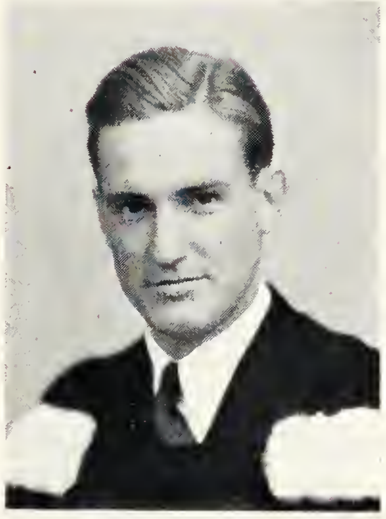
Future—Doubtful, if any.

Dana Harold Lamb

HAMILTON

General Course

A product of a Baptist parsonage, Dana came to McMaster in order to fit himself to follow in his father's footsteps. Being the possessor of a fine tenor voice, his extra-curricular interests have centered largely in the musical organizations of the University. Choral Society (I), M.M.C.U. Exec. (II), Male Chair (III, IV), McMaste Evangelistic Band (III, IV).



James Robert Langs

HAMILTON

Political Economy

Jimmy came to McMaster from Pickering College. During his stay at Mac he has taken an active part in the Pol. Econ. and International Relations Clubs.

Has been active in Athletics, playing Football and managing Track teams. Likes to play Squash.

Has no definite plans for the future, but declares that it will not be O.C.E.

Joseph K. Lattimore

HAMILTON

Philosophy

Deb. Rep. (II, III, IV), Vice-Pres. Phil. Club (III), B. of Pub. (III), Debating "M" (II).

Came to McMaster from H.C.C.I., an avowed follower of Socrates but only succeeded in proving that there is a "Santa Claus." Hopes to have better success at Knox College, preparing for the ministry of the "Auld Kirk."

Roselea Helen Leckie

HAMILTON

Social Science

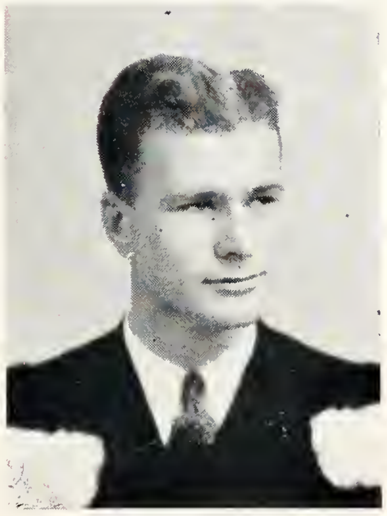
Graduated from Delta C.I. and Hamilton Normal School. Decided on a career of moral reform. Despite this obstacle managed to partake of activities in a lighter vein. Basketball, baseball, tennis, badminton, skiing (II, III, IV). Spends her free time slumming and is headed for McGill; there to indulge in sociological research.

M. Alberta Lee

ADAMS MASS.

Honour Classics

From Canada, Alberta went to U.S.A., then returned to this side, coming to McMaster. It seems that winning scholarships is her favourite pastime (Adams H.S. Athletic Scholarship and the Governor-General's Medal). Displayed her executive ability in a galaxy of positions (Women's Editor of Sil, Managing Editor (IV). A brilliant intellect and sterling character has made her one of Mac's outstanding students.

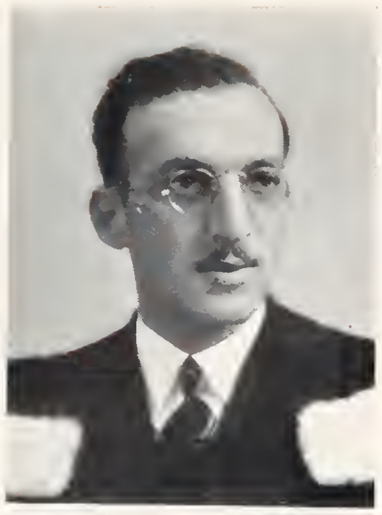


Arthur F. Lennie

OTTAWA

History and Economics

Art came from that illustrious parliamentary town to head the McMaster reformers. All his friends, and he has many of them, are now confirmed Radicals after listening to his speeches. Athletic actor, singer, debater and Hi-Kakiak, Art has packed a great deal of activity into four short years. Mac will be lost without his repertoire.



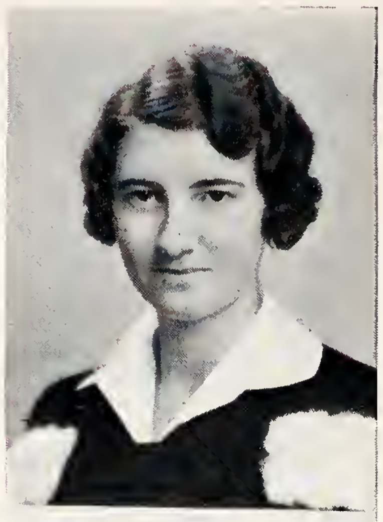
Cecil Levy

HAMILTON

History and Political Economy

Graduated from H. C. C. I., then came to McMaster. He is a member of the Pol. Econ. Club, but devoted his life at Mac. to managing of inter-year sports and is known as the playing manager. Cecil is a would-be lawyer.

Future plans—Osgoode, of course.



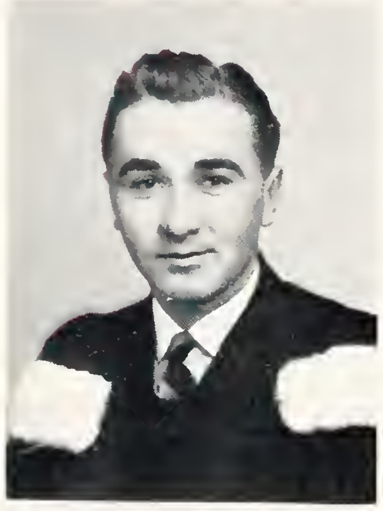
Kathleen Loney

HAMILTON

Honour English and History

Born in Brantford June, 1914. International upheaval two months later. Graduated from Westdale Collegiate, Hamilton, and probably because of her propensity to loquacity pursued a course in English at McMaster. Faithful member M.S.V. and M.W.C.U.

Future—O.C.E.

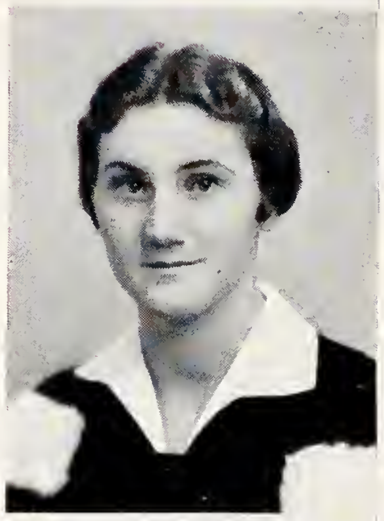


Warren Francis Lynch

HAMILTON

History and Economics

Coming to McMaster from Cathedral and St. Mikes, Warren has perhaps been best known as quarter-back of the College football team. Besides football he has taken an active part in the activities of the Pol. Econ. Club.

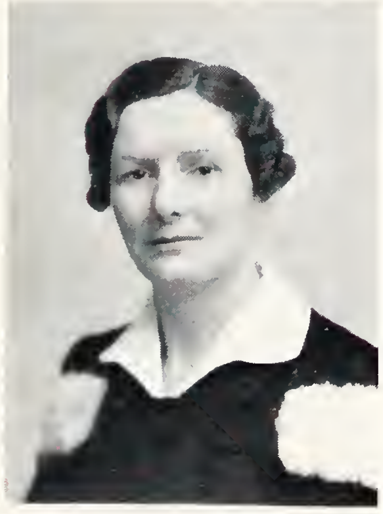


Iolene A. Macklin

APPLEBY

Honour English and History

A graduate of Burlington High School and Canada Business College. Iolene, arriving at Mac, has found time to be debating representative, Intercollegiate Debater, Secretary-Treasurer and Vice-Pres. M.S.U., a member of Choral Society, Internat. Rel. Club, Year Play and Inter-year Basketball team; yet has managed to get her essays done on time.



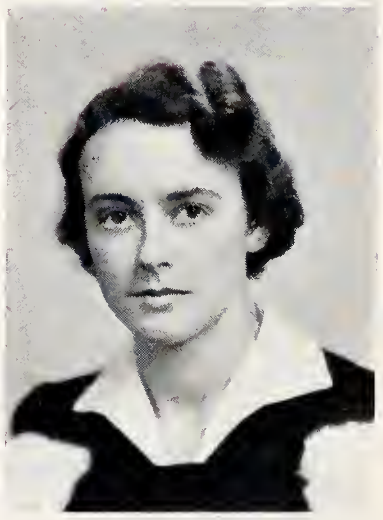
Harriet E. MacLachlan

TORONTO

General Course

Harriet returned to Mac at Christmas time after an absence of several years.

She hopes to graduate in September and would like to teach English and History in a high school.



Jean Phyllis MacLaurin

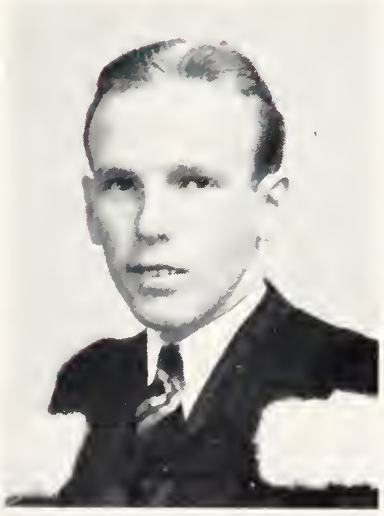
BELLEVILLE

English

Jean received her early education at her Daddy's high school in Belleville. Played basketball during her first year at Mac, but has taken up dancing since that time. She has acquired the happy faculty of making and keeping friends.

Favourite expression—Oh, I do not!

Future plans—O.C.E.

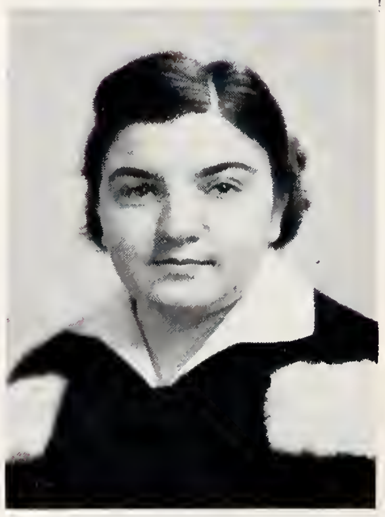


Wallace R. Main

HAMILTON

Political Economy

Wally came from Delta C.I. to McMaster to excite the wonder of women in Pol. Econ. by knocking off firsts consistently. He is one big reason why we have a Bd. of Pub's, assistant business mgr. (II, III), chief business manager. (IV), Marmor (III), Sil feature editor (III). International Rel's and Pol. Econ Clubs. Took part in inter-year athletics. Wally is abounding in business ability and wherever he goes there will be big business.

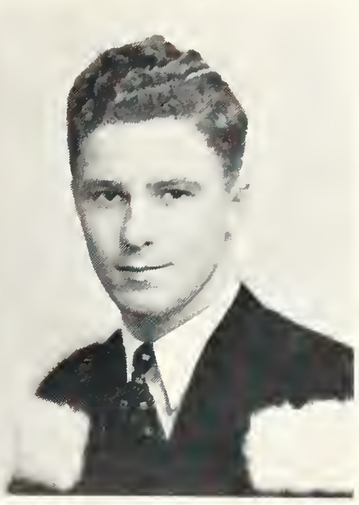


Christine Martini

HAMILTON

French Option

She graduated from Delta Collegiate and landed at McMaster to pursue a linguistic career. Her future plans run Schoolma'am-wise—O.C.E.



Donald McAlpine

HAMILTON

Honour Chemistry

From Delta to Mac, Don came with plenty of vim, vigor and vitality. Cheer-leader, cartoonist, year pres. (III) and senior colours—versatility plus capability—successful president. That's Don to a "turn," acrobatically speaking. Has promised a brilliant future in the World of Chemistry.

Here's to you, Don!

Russell K. McAvoy

TARA

History and Economics

Treasurer (III), Pres. (IV), Pol. Econ. Club (II, III, IV), Intercollegiate Wrestling (II).

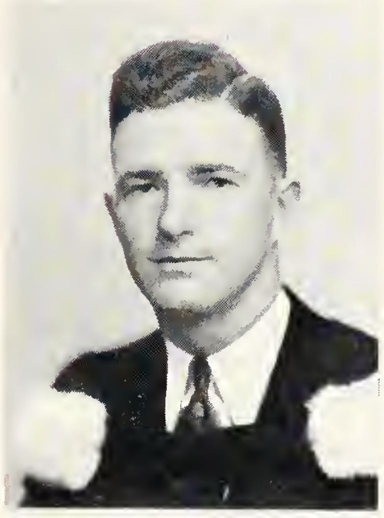
Taught for five years at Kirkland Lake before coming to Mac to realize his ambition. A self-made man with a ready wit and a bountiful supply of executive ability. He has made many friends who wish him well in his future studies at Osgoode.

Kathryn McCully

HAMILTON

Honour French and German

Kay graduated from Central Collegiate and came to fill a very important niche in Mac's student life. Her remarkable executive abilities had expression in her positions as Vice-president of year '37 (III); Vice-president of W.S.B. (IV); President of Modern Language Club (IV). Her executive aptitude, with a big share of feminine pulchritude and winning personality, give her a distinctive place in Mac's Hall of Memories.



Howard McGregor

PAISLEY

Philosophy Option

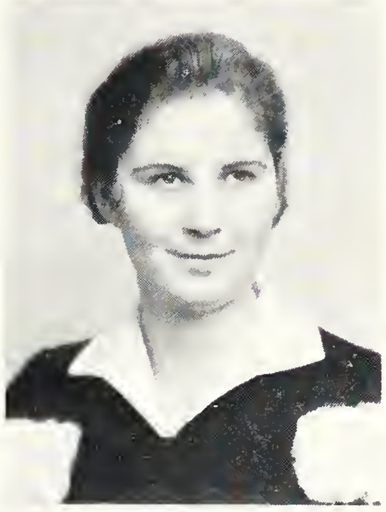
Philosophy — Laugh and the world laughs with you; worry and the world laughs at you.

Hobby—Upholding Kant.

Frequent expression—Good-morning.

Favourite pastime—Playing hockey for Theology.

Future—Ask someone in Northern Ontario.



Margaret Elson McIntyre

GUELPH

French

"Mac" came to us after one year at U. of T. and more recently from Mac Hall in Guelph. While here, she has been occupied with a French course but this does not lead to O.C.E. for her—rather business college. Such a varied past certainly books an interesting future.

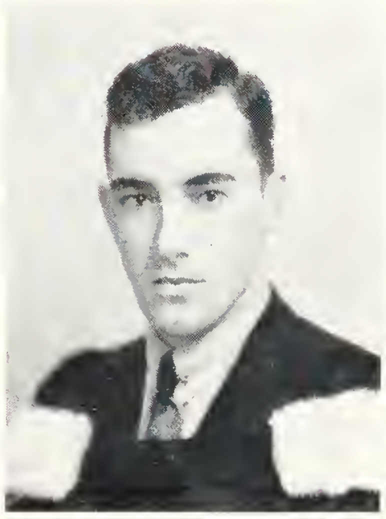
Joseph McPherson

HAMILTON

Honour Mathematics and Physics

Born in Readlyn, Saskatchewan. Graduated from Delta C. I., 1933. Fond of sports but was not able to compete due to outside activities. Member of Mathematics Club in 1937.

Future—O.C.E.



Bevis Elfric Miles

HAMILTON

Honour Mathematics and Physics

Bevis came from England to Hamilton Central Collegiate, thence to Mac. His activities are varied. M.M.C.U. year rep. (II, III), member of the inter-collegiate soccer team (II-IV). He gained another triumph as member of the championship rifle team. Bevis has gone radio-wild. His favourite pastime to the distraction of his family is taking apart and putting together short wave radios; his future—radio engineering.

Donald Miller

HAMILTON

Honour Mathematics and Physics

A great lover of the north and a great student of mathematics. Originator of the Miller ruse (never turn down the right bower). Confesses a love for Olde Tyme Swynge and tries to bow a mean fiddle to prove it—pretends to be a checker expert. Prefers the quiet of the North for his summer holidays.

Donald D. Moore

EDEN

Honour English and History

Graduate of Tillsonburg High School. M.S.V.—Extension Sect. (II), 2nd Vice-Pres. (III). Modern English Club (II, III), Sect.-Treas. (III).

Future—O.C.E.

"A Youth to Fortune and to Fame unknown," but none the less, "a man, take him for all in all, I shall not look upon his like again."

Margaret Helen Morell

HAMILTON

Honour English and History

Marg. arrived via Delta C.I. Attends lectures only as means to conversation, writes essays only under compulsion, approaches exams with pessimism, graduates with enthusiasm, and then will probably enter business.

Gordon E. Orcutt

BRANTFORD

Honour Chemistry

Born in Boston, Mass., he came from Brantford Collegiate to McMaster to "get" science (not religion). In his frivolous moments his favourite pastime is throwing corks at Frank Dunn. He has been a staunch member of the Science Club.

His future plans are "chemist."

Erma Irene Pasel

HAMILTON

Honour Science

Erma is four-letter word meaning intelligence. Good nature, friendliness and dependability belong right in there too—that's why the Vice-President of the Science Club gets on so well with everybody (and especially the President).

Hobby—Teasing the worms (!) in Biology.

Future—? successful anyway, seeing she's one of the 4 H's.

Fred H. Patterson

DUNDAS

Honour Science

Fred hails from Dundas matriculating to McMaster from night-school. During his career at Mac he has frequently been seen in inter-year athletics. Has been a valuable member of the Mathematics and Science Clubs.

Fred plans to follow a life in Engineering after leaving us.

Lorna Pearson

QUEENSVILLE

Honour English and History

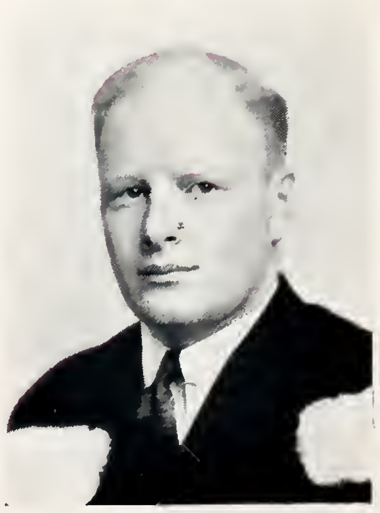
Lorna's enthusiasm for university life, although hampered in its early stages by homesickness, found expression in a keen interest in football games and an active support of campus activities. As President of Wallingford Hall, she took a special course which might be labelled "Human Nature 4a."

David Playfair

HAMILTON

Honour French and German

Dave came to Mac from Central C.I. to further improve his knowledge of Modern Languages. He found that the Modern Language Club helped to do this as well as the lectures. Plans to pursue graduate studies when he leaves here.



John D. Precious

OTTAWA

Science

Johnny came to McMaster from Glebe Collegiate to become a scientist. He took a prominent part in all university activities, particularly dancing; found outlets for journalistic talents as managing editor of Silhouette, cools his spacious body as a member of McMaster swimming teams. He has a distinct weakness for stories so has decided to become a travelling salesman.

IN ARTS

Ruth Eleanor Raithby
ST. THOMAS
Honour English and History

Held executive positions in M.W.C.U. and M.S.V. The piano was her forte. In Wallingford, at Chapel, and in various other student organizations she made good use of her musical ability.

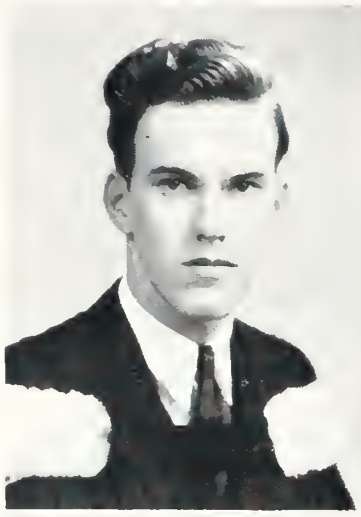
(IV); Councillor (III); Vice-Pres. of '37 (II); Intercollegiate Debating (III, IV).

Edwin W. Sheldrake
HAMILTON
Honour Science

Coming from Delta C.I. this hard(ly) working young man punned through college with the greatest of E's. Attracted primarily to chemistry; also finds an interest in music and photography.

Hopes to attend O.C.E. sometime in the future.

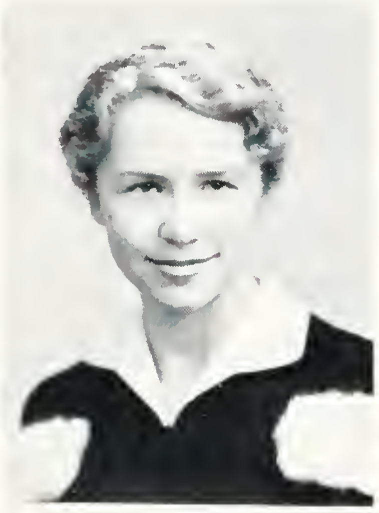


Albert Graham Simpson
HAMILTON
History

After graduating from Westdale, went to Normal School to learn how to impart knowledge to young Canada. Decided it was not his field so entered Mac. Took part in all interyear and common room activities. Future—O.C.E.?

Christopher Smallman
HAMILTON
English Option

A graduate of Delta Collegiate, Christopher's intelligence will make him a good school teacher. He is a steady member of the Modern Literature Club. The congeniality of his disposition is displayed by his favourite expression, "Well, don't worry about it!"



Carolyn Smith
HAMILTON
Honour French and German

Graduated from Westdale C.I., acquiring an Albert Matthews Scholarship and has proved herself a top-notch linguist by winning the third year French prize at McMaster. She is a valuable member of the French and German Club. Her ability, personality and appearance will boost her in whatever she chooses to do.

Frederick Tirvin Smye
HAMILTON
History and Economics

A graduate of Westdale C.I., Fred decided to come to Mac and study Economics. While at Mac he has taken an active part in inter-year sports and has been a steady member of the Men's Political Economy Club.

Grey Asquith Stapleton
HAMILTON
Political Economy

Anxious to really do things, Grey originally entered pre-engineering. The two years of economics only leave him better equipped and more anxious to continue as he began. Numerous athletic activities include, badminton, basketball, boxing, rugby, hockey, soccer (once) and getting refreshments at receptions.

Secret ambition—"Queen's."

Llewellyn Stephens
HAMILTON
Honour French and German

From Pickering College Lyn came to McMaster to study Modern Languages. While at Mac he has been an active member of the Modern Language Club. Plans to do graduate work next year in this line.

IN ARTS

John Lamont Stewart

HAMILTON

History and Political Economy

Best all-around man from Westdale C.I. Johnny clicked from the first and soon became outstanding on the playing field, the campus, and in the class-room. An active member of the Political Economy Club and member of the intercollegiate badminton and football teams. Plans a future at Osgoode and hopes for an early retirement.

James Sturgeon

HAMILTON

Pass Economics

Originally from Fredericktan, New Brunswick, Jim graduated from Delta Collegiate and delved into economics at Mac. He has been a steady member of the Men's Political Economy Club and a really good "economist."

Elizabeth Gardner Taylor

HAMILTON

Honour French and German

Since coming to McMaster from Central Betty has distinguished herself in the realm of athletics as much if not more than in other activities. Last year she brought fame to our college when she represented Canada at the Olympics in the hurdles. A winner of the Chancellor's medal and the Associate medal twice, and a member of the girls' basketball team for four years.

Plans to attend O.C.E.

Margaret Gardner Taylor

HAMILTON

Honour French and German

A graduate of Central Collegiate, Marg. has become a clever linguist at McMaster and plans to be a schoolm'am at O.C.E. As well as being a valuable member of the Modern Language Club, she, like her twin sister Betty, is a distinguished Mac athlete for she has been an outstanding member of the Senior Intercollegiate Basketball team for four years.

Phyllis Georgina Thomas

BURLINGTON

Honour French and German

Phyl graduated from Burlington C.I. She is a first class linguist whose future plans are vaguely O.C.E. Her flashing brown eyes and liveliness have made her successful in extra-curricular activities.

Amelia Ruth Thomas

KITCHENER

Science

Ruth arrived at Mac from Brantford C.I. on a General Proficiency Scholarship and has proved her metal in the Chemistry Lab. as well as elsewhere. When not demonstrating her technique in recreating Biology drawings she spends her time knitting and . . .

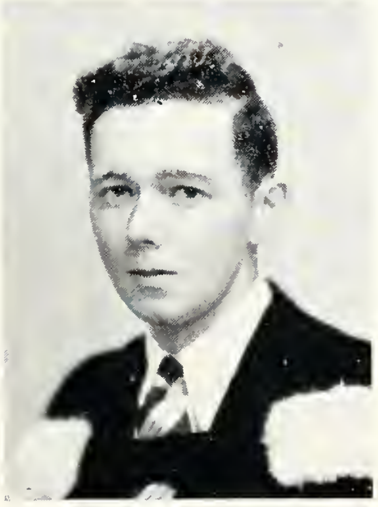
Future—Medical Technician in spite of being one of the "Four H's."

Ralph Ernest Thornton

OTTAWA

History

Graduated from Glebe C.I. and enriched McMaster with his athletic ability. A star of intermediate track and basketball (II), Senior track (III-IV), intermediate football (III-IV), interyear hockey. Plans to specialize in Physical Cluture at O.C.E.



Robert Norman Tucker

HAMILTON

Honour Mathematics and Physics

In mathematicks he was greater
Than Tychs Brahe or Erra Pater;
For he, by geometrick scale,
Could take the size of pots of ale;
Resolve, by sines and tangents, straight,
If bread or butter wanted weight;
And wisely tell what hour o' th' day
The clock does strike, by algebra.

Frederic William Vickers

ST. CATHARINES

Honour French and German

Coming from St. Catharines Collegiate to Mac he proved himself a first-class linguist by capturing the Gordon Edwards Scholarship for Modern Languages. The Modern Language Club and Inter-year Basketball are his chief outlets of activity. His chief aversion is the men's smoke kiln. Browsing through the "stacks" is his fascinating (?) pastime.

B. Margeurite Viens

OTTAWA

Political Economy

Yet another from Ottawa, as proud of it as any of them. Favourite extra-curricular activities—knitting, parties, basketball. In her second year she was intercollegiate tennis representative. Her speedy course through life won her the name of "Pepper" in Wallingford. Plans for the future—indefinite.

Myrtle Peppler Walsh

HANOVER

English

Miss Peppler came to Mac in '30. She has returned as Mrs. Walsh to graduate with '37. Myrtle is a delightful conversationalist, a talented scribbler. Outside activities—twins, age four. Weaknesses—Rupert Brooke and Sauerkraut. Pet aversion—Irish Tenors. Myrtle believes in a constructive Revolution—the more drastic the better!

Frederick M. Ward

PETERBOROUGH

General Arts

As president of the M.S.V. (III) and social convenor of Theology, Fred showed his interest in extra-curricular activities. The winning of the Wm. Craig prize (III) is a commentary on his academic interest.

His chief extra-college interest lies in Caledon school-teaching.

Margaret A. Webb

TORONTO

French Option

Ralph B. Wickett

HAMILTON

Political Economy

Ralph graduated from Central Collegiate. He has journalistic tendencies, having been a reporter of the Sil. (II, IV), and a well-liked "breezy" Spectator reporter. He has taken part in a wide variety of sports—basketball, hockey, rugby, golf and Varsity track team. He was a member of Mac Formal Committee '35. Future plans—U. of Chicago or O.C.E. or business.

Nora Clare Wilks

TORONTO

General Course

Came to Mac from Runnymede C.I. Activities—Inter-year basketball, badminton and dramatics.

Pet aversions—Signboards and French. Interested in everything from insects to human nature. Thinks the problem of world peace is comparatively simple.

Future—Nursing and social service work.

Laureto Jane Williamson

HAMILTON

History

Jane spent twelve years at Loretto, then decided to try life at Mac. She claims that she has thoroughly enjoyed her three years of study here, but we know that it wasn't all study.

Plays a good game of golf, dislikes bridge but likes sailing, swimming and chopping wood.

Norval Ludlow Williamson

NEW LISKEARD

Science

Hockey player extraordinary, letterman, and O.H.A. scholarship winner. Helped Tigers win the Senior O.H.A. championship in 1935-36. Member of the McMaster track team for three years On Edwards Hall executive for two years. His smile is his password and we'll all miss him when he goes to McGill to take Medicine and some more hockey for a great big ride.

Frances E. Wilson

HAMILTON

Honour English and History

Sec. (III), Vice-Pres. (IV), Mac Formal Committee, International Relations Club (III, IV), Badminton Team (1, II, III, IV).

Frances arrived from Westdale Collegiate. Her charming personality combined with executive ability accounts for her high position in the ranks and hearts of year '37. Best of luck for the future Fran. and may you always find a front seat.

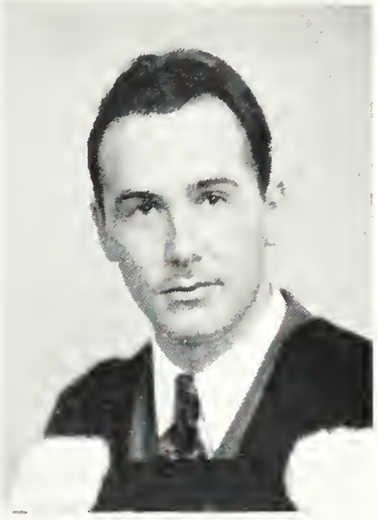
Ashton Walter Winter

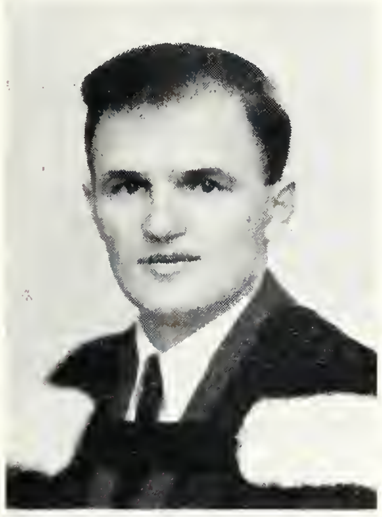
HAMILTON

Political Economy

Ash, since coming to Mac, has taken an active part in university life—everything from "water-fights" in the residence to M.M.C.U. executive where he instituted the phrase "Are you a Brother?" Played football (III, IV). Made his debut in dramatics as the hero in "Low Life" in his fourth year.

Other activities—M.S.B. and Pol. Econ. Club.





Felix Raymond Wolovich

BARTONVILLE

Honour Chemistry

He came to McMaster from Delta Collegiate where he did his best to mix athletics and studies. He was originally in year '34 but interrupted his studies at the end of his third year and returned to receive his degree with year '37.

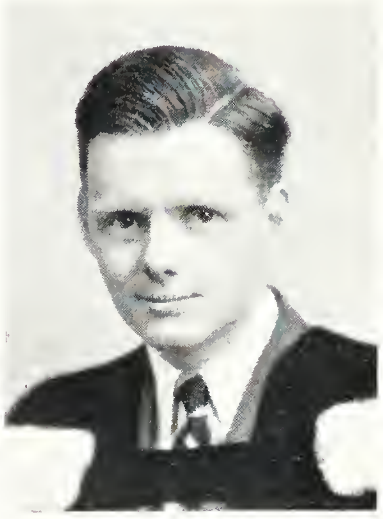
George H. Young

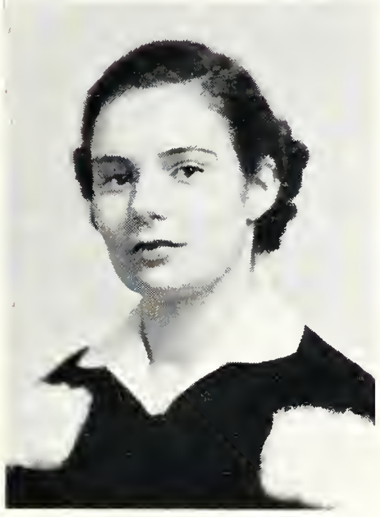
HAMILTON

Philosophy Option

One of the Central C.I. boys who sought higher education. George studies philosophy, thinks philosophy, but peculiarly, he doesn't know any. Summer occupation is steamboating with an occasional ship-wreck for diversion.

Future—Well, who knows?





Gladys Alberta Young

HAMILTON

Honour Mathematics and Physics

Coming to McMaster from Waterdown C.I., Gladys proved herself a real student here and one of those rare women who can carry off honours in Mathematics and Physics.

Weakness—Getting high grades.

Hobby—Selling knitted-wear in spare time.

Future—O.C.E. Best of success, Gladys!

Robert Young

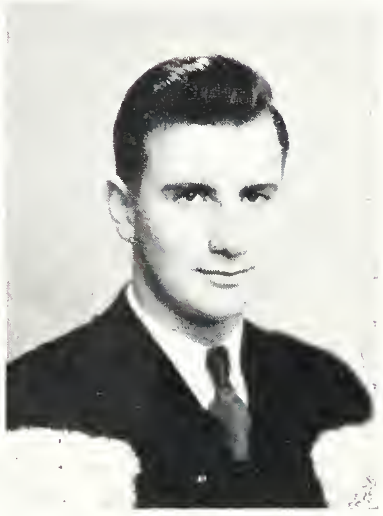
HAMILTON

Honour Science

All-round proficiency at Westdale C.I. —the Binkley diamond medal for Bob.

Then: a McMaster tennis champion, a poplar football hero, a dashing basketball star, and a powerful swimmer.

Generous and likeable, Bob says his favourite pastime is studying, but we know that it's blondes and brunettes.



Jack Alexander Aikman

FACULTY OF THEOLOGY

Frederick George Baldson, B.A., B.Th.

WEST LORNE

Theology

From Georgetown Secondary School in Wales, which he entered as a privileged scholarship student, Fred came to Mac for the best seven years of his life. He finally departs from our halls with three degrees, a Stuart S. Bates Scholarship, and a host of friends. His plans are to get first a church and secondly a ——!!

F. W. L. Brailey, B.A.

HAMILTON

Theology

High School education in England. Student of Surveyors Institution of Great Britain; 2 years military service, 404th Highland Field Company, R.E., 41st Division B.E.F. Deputy Borough Surveyor of Totnes, Devon, England.

Came to Canada, 1920. On the staff of the Treasury Dept. of the City of Toronto. Graduated in Theology from Victoria University, and in Arts from McMaster in '35. Ordained for the United Church ministry, 1926.

Archibald James MacLachlan, B.A.

TROCHU, ALBERTA

Theology

Graduated from Brandon but a good student and a genial fellow. Even though we might forget everything else about him we will always remember his hearty laugh. His contribution to student life· Dramatics (three Big Plays and the Classical Club's production, "Antigone"), Soccer and Theology Executive work. Good Luck, Archie!

Ralph P. Clark, B.A.

BROCKVILLE

Theology

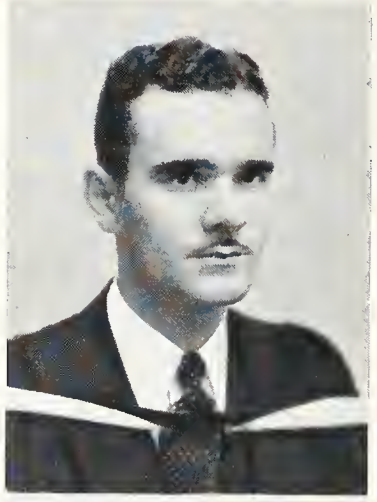
During the last two years, Ralph has distinguished himself as essayist and speechmaker extraordinary of Theology. We acknowledge his excellent service with the Silhouette staff, his prowess on the badminton floor and his unique contribution to Mac in popularizing that sport; and we look forward with him, after his balanced career at college, to a sane and useful ministry.

Charles Howard Bentall, B.A.

PICTURE BUTTE, ALBERTA

Theology

(U. B.C. with apologies). A super-salesman and his finest product "Bentallian oil". A versatile debater, helped Mac win I.U.D.L. cup in 1935. A keen student, but other activities too: President M.M.C.U. 1935-36; President Theology 1936-37; Secretary Student's Council and International Relations Club 1936-37; and also Classical Club's Play "Antigone" 1936; Intermediate Soccer 1936-37. We will hear from him, "Thanks very much".



Ernest Emile Bruder, B.A.

WINNIPEG

Theology

Graduated from the University of Manitoba, realized his mistake and came to Mac. Tried to Hitlerize Theology, and I-Deal-ize the Student Council. His classic feet-ures won him a role in "Antigone". He argued his way into intercollegiate debating and, they say won the Silver Medal for Oratory. Anyway, here's to Theology's President, whose record here augurs well for his future career.

Berry A. Armstrong, B.A.

TORONTO

Theology

Donald W. Maddocks, B.A.

TORONTO

Theology

During his five years at McMaster, Don has played stellar roles in the annual Big Play. This year he carried home the Bacon in the production of "Elizabeth the Queen". As first President of the Dramatic Society, he was responsible in no small degree for the introduction of co-ed plays to the University. After conferring the B.Th. degree on Don, the University decided to discontinue the course.

IN THEOLOGY

Arden D. Nichols

NORICH

Theology

Arden came from the Norich High School to become a theologian. His summer occupations show his versatility—Preaching and Salesmanship which he combines with an interesting pastime—Sketching.

Harold Urban Trinier

ORILLIA

English Theology

Born in Orillia, Ontario. Attended Public and High Schools in Parry Sound, and Business College in Toronto. After a business career, came to study Theology at McMaster. During his course he has been minister of Oakridge Baptist Church in Toronto. Harold came to "MAC" and left without "heart-trouble".

Olive Ada Hunter

STRATFORD

Missionary

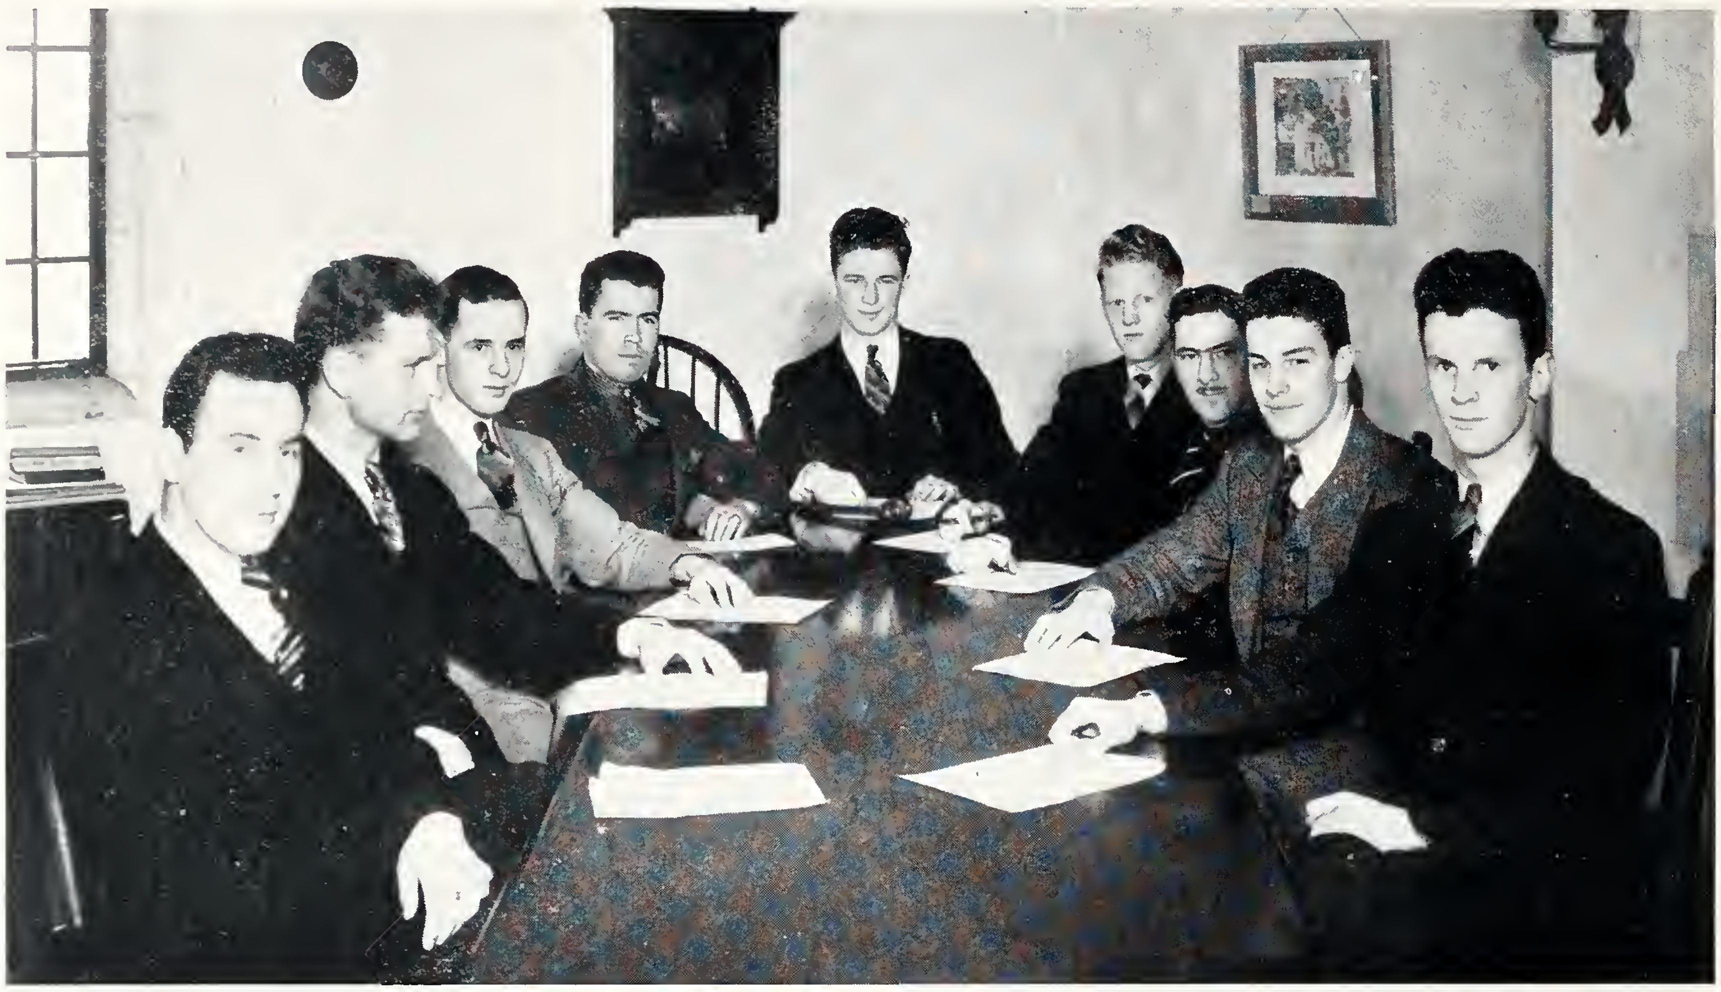
MEN'S STUDENT BODY EXECUTIVE



Winter, Lennie, Bentall, McAvoy, McAlpine, Hindson, Meldrum, MacKay, Seldon

This executive represents all the enrolled male students of the University. Included in it are the officers of the Body proper, the presidents of the four years and theology, the kakiak of Edwards and a non-resident representative. Invested in this executive are the complete disciplinary powers among the men; the looking after of their organizations, including initiations and the upkeep of the Men's Common Room for which we are responsible. The executive wishes to take this opportunity to thank all the members of its Body for their co-operation and support during the past year.

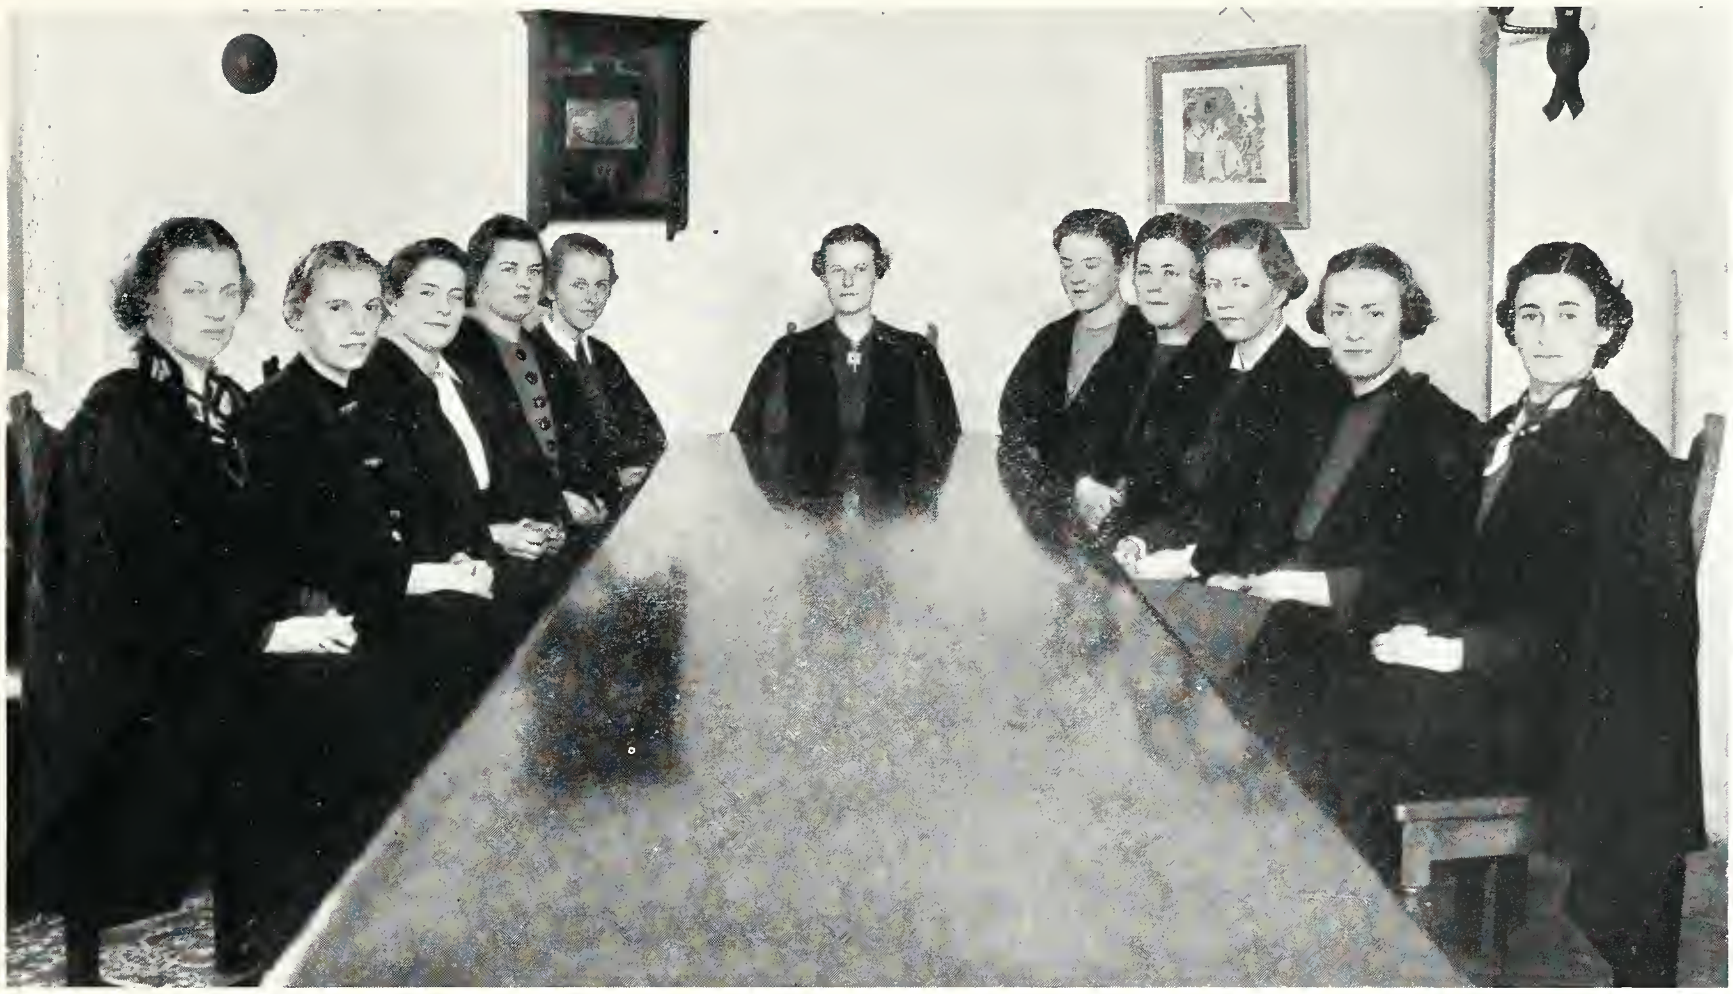
WOMEN'S STUDENT BODY EXECUTIVE



Skelding, Pasel, Hopper Pearson, McCully, Dunn, Hubbard, Wilson, Hardy, Ryan, Sutherland

The Women's Student Body is representative of all the women students of the University. It supervises the activities of the women students and aids the various clubs and organizations in any difficulties that may arise. It acts as the link between all these different organizations, and promotes a closer harmony between them.

Miss Ruth Dunn has filled capably her position as the leader of the girls, and has fulfilled the duties of her responsible position very well indeed. The Executive take this opportunity of thanking the women students for their splendid co-operation this year, and of wishing next year's executive every success.

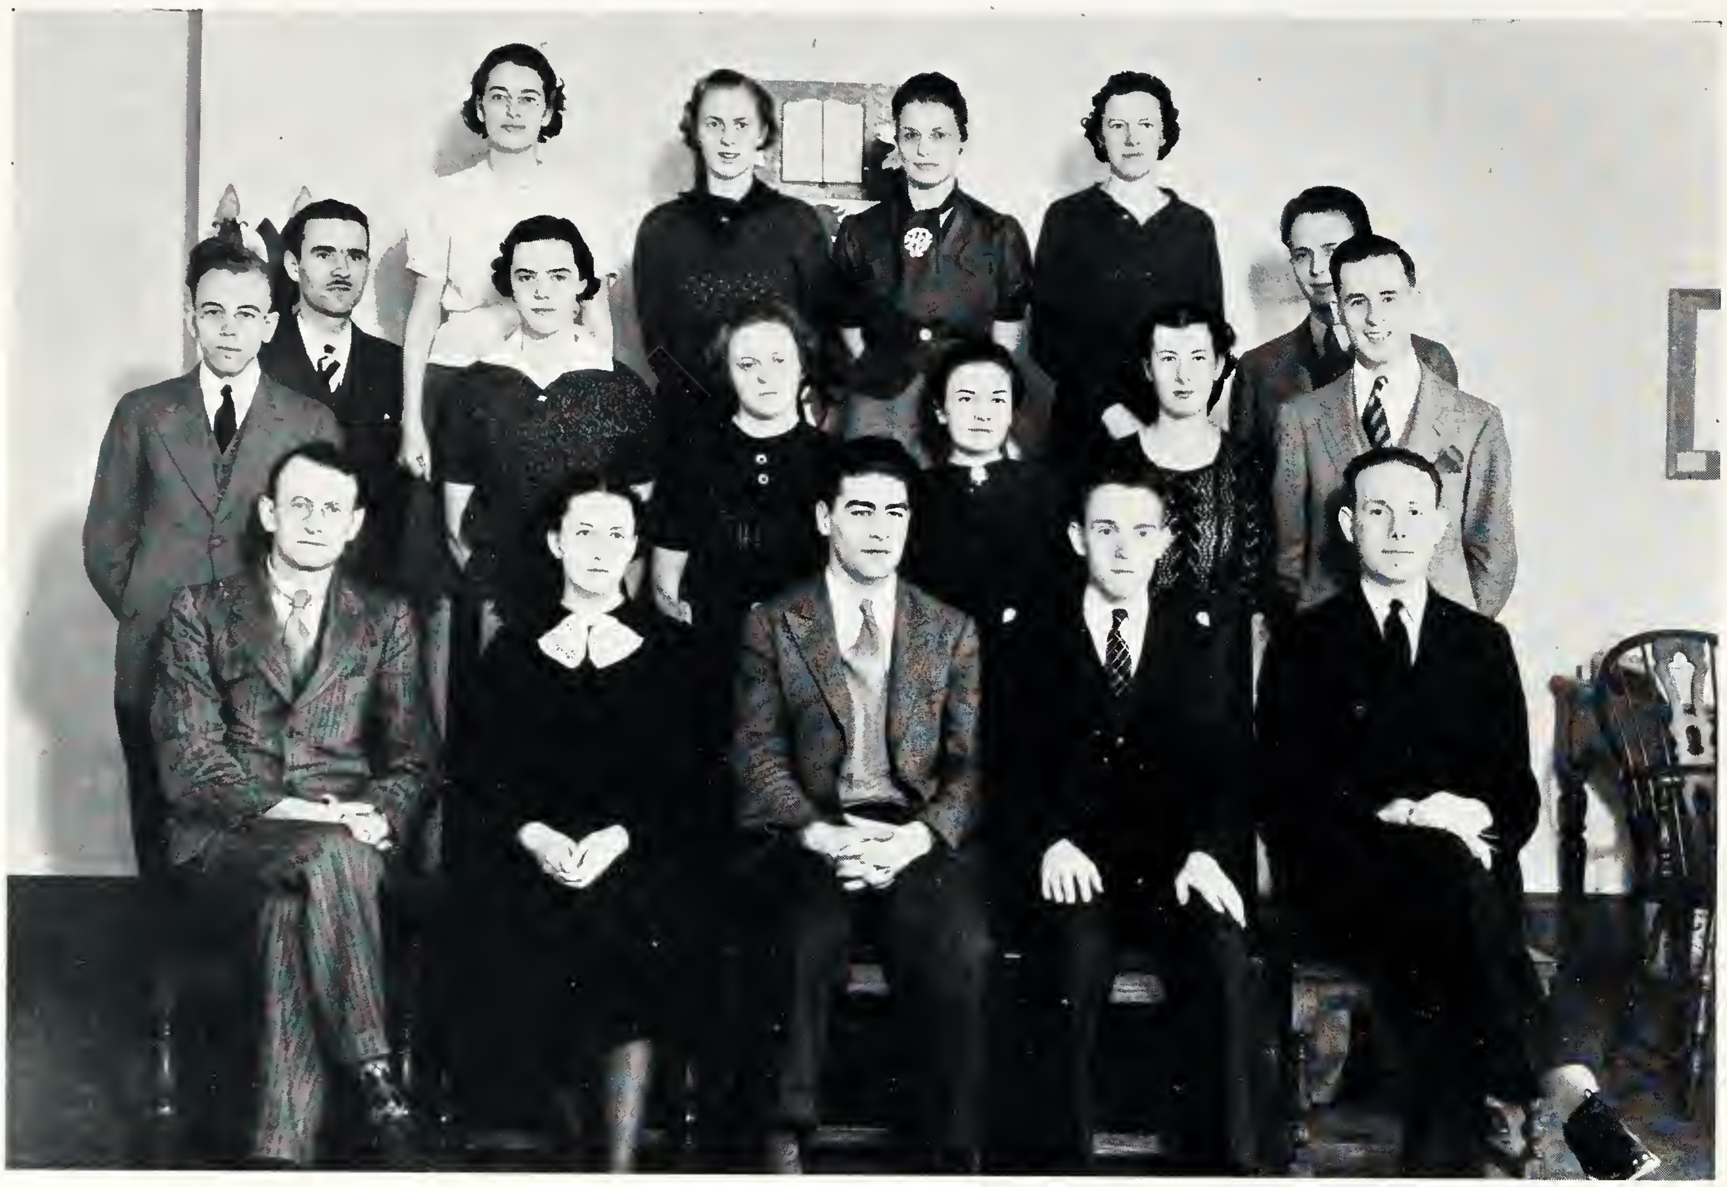
CLASSICAL CLUB



Pitter, Penfold, Lee, Peal
Dabbs, Bruder, Wearing, Ringrose, Hall, Foster, Robertson, Bentall
Prof. Stearn, Elkington, Holloway, Montgomery, Dr. Salmon

Most successful of this year's Classical Club functions was the production of Sophocles' "Antigone" (complete) in English translation by Professor Stearn, honorary president of the club, on October 29th. The club is grateful to those outside its circle who so kindly and ably assisted in making the play the finished production it was. Professor Stearn has the congratulations of the University on his capable direction of "Antigone." In this connection, thanks are also in order to Mrs. Stearn, who twice entertained the cast at her home.

Professor Walker very kindly presided at the next meeting, held in Wallingford Hall, clarifying the various questions raised in the discussion following Henry Holloway's description of "Some Aspects of Ancient Mining Methods." All present enjoyed the hospitality of Dean Carpenter—and her waffles!

The Philosophy Club combined with the Classical Club on March 1 to hear a lecture by Professor Havelock of Toronto on the "Oriental Origins of Greek Philosophy." We are indebted to Professor Salmon for arranging this extremely interesting evening.

During the same month Miss Isabelle Ryan read a colorful paper on the "Use of Cosmetics in Ancient Times." This session proved popular with the ladies. Miss Ryan's paper showed that there is nothing new under the stars, and that the modern cosmetic artist has not yet displayed any striking originality in his catering to the demands of feminine vanity.

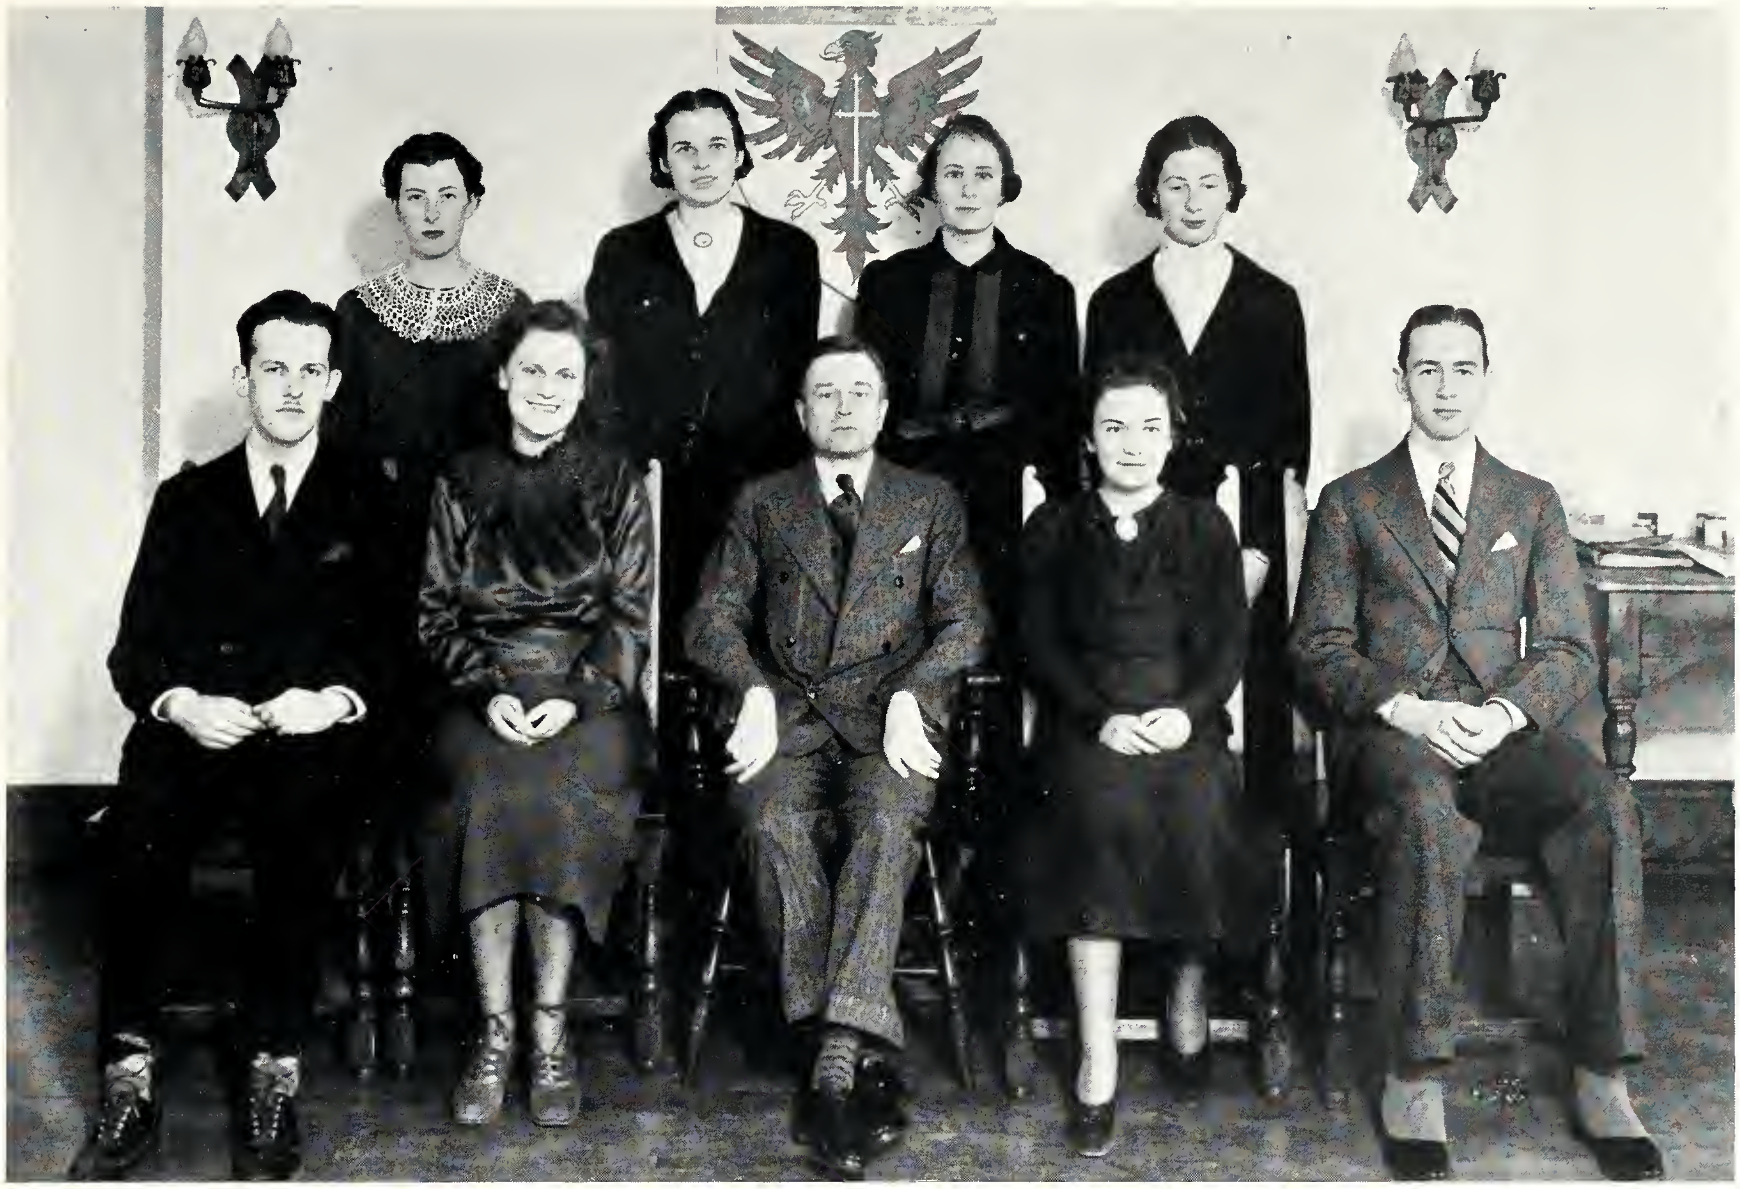
DRAMATIC SOCIETY EXECUTIVE



Foster, Hopper, Viens, Goddard
Kendall, Bidwell, Prof. Haddow, Hall, Linton

This year the Dramatic Society under the very energetic leadership of its president, Ed. Kendall, produced the most spectacular and most difficult play attempted at this University—namely, Maxwell Anderson's "Elizabeth the Queen." Again under the directorship of their beloved "Bill" Atkinson, the Society produced a beautiful and remarkably finished production. This year marks the tenth year that Mr. Atkinson had directed for the college and he was presented with the Dramatic Society award.

The Women's Student Body play, "Women at War," presented at the Women's Student Body Reception, was interpreted with understanding and directed with "finesse" and capability by Millie Hall. It was an effective appeal to all women to unite against war.

Contributions to the Year Play contest were: the second act from the hilarious comedy, "The Torch-Bearers," presented by the Juniors; "The Reading of the Will," presented by the Sophomores; "Low Life," a sketch of the pathetic conditions resulting from depression, by Mazo de la Roche, presented by the Seniors; and "Brothers in Arms," presented by the Freshmen. As in the previous year Professor Stearn gave his extremely helpful adjudications after each play.

This year the society loses some of its most enthusiastic supporters—Ed. Kendall, Dorothy Foster, Archie MacLachlan, Don Maddocks. The society wishes them every success in dramatics in the future.

MEN'S DEBATING EXECUTIVE

Dabbs, Lattimore, Armstrong
Pennell, Ferguson, Dr. Bensen, McAdam

The Men's Debating Society closed the door on another year feeling gratified for the added response shown this year on the part of those interested in debating. The introduction of livelier and lighter subjects, especially in the Inter-year debates, proved a real stimulus for such response. The society owes much of its success to the Honorary President, Dr. R. C. Bensen, for his time and advice.

One of the outstanding events of the year was the victory of Norman Dabbs and Hugh Dalzell over a British team representing Edinburgh and London Universities on the subject, "That the merits of the present-day family as a social institution are over-rated." This debate was held under the auspices of the N.F.C.U.S.

In the Inter-year debates the Freshmen emerged victorious, winning the decision over Theology in the final debate. The trophy is now in their possession.

The popularity of the Co-ed debates was again evinced. The debate of the first term on the subject, "That there is a Santa Claus," was only settled when Santa appeared in person and offered candy to all who voted for the affirmative side.

Doris Reuel and Hugh Dalzell excelled themselves in the only Inter-University Radio debate of the year. Although the decision went to the University of Western Ontario, McMaster can well be proud of these two, and also the I.U.D.L. and Inter-University debaters who did so much to uphold the tradition of their Alma Mater as to debating skill.

It is to be hoped that in the future more students will avail themselves of the opportunity to improve and display their dialectical powers.

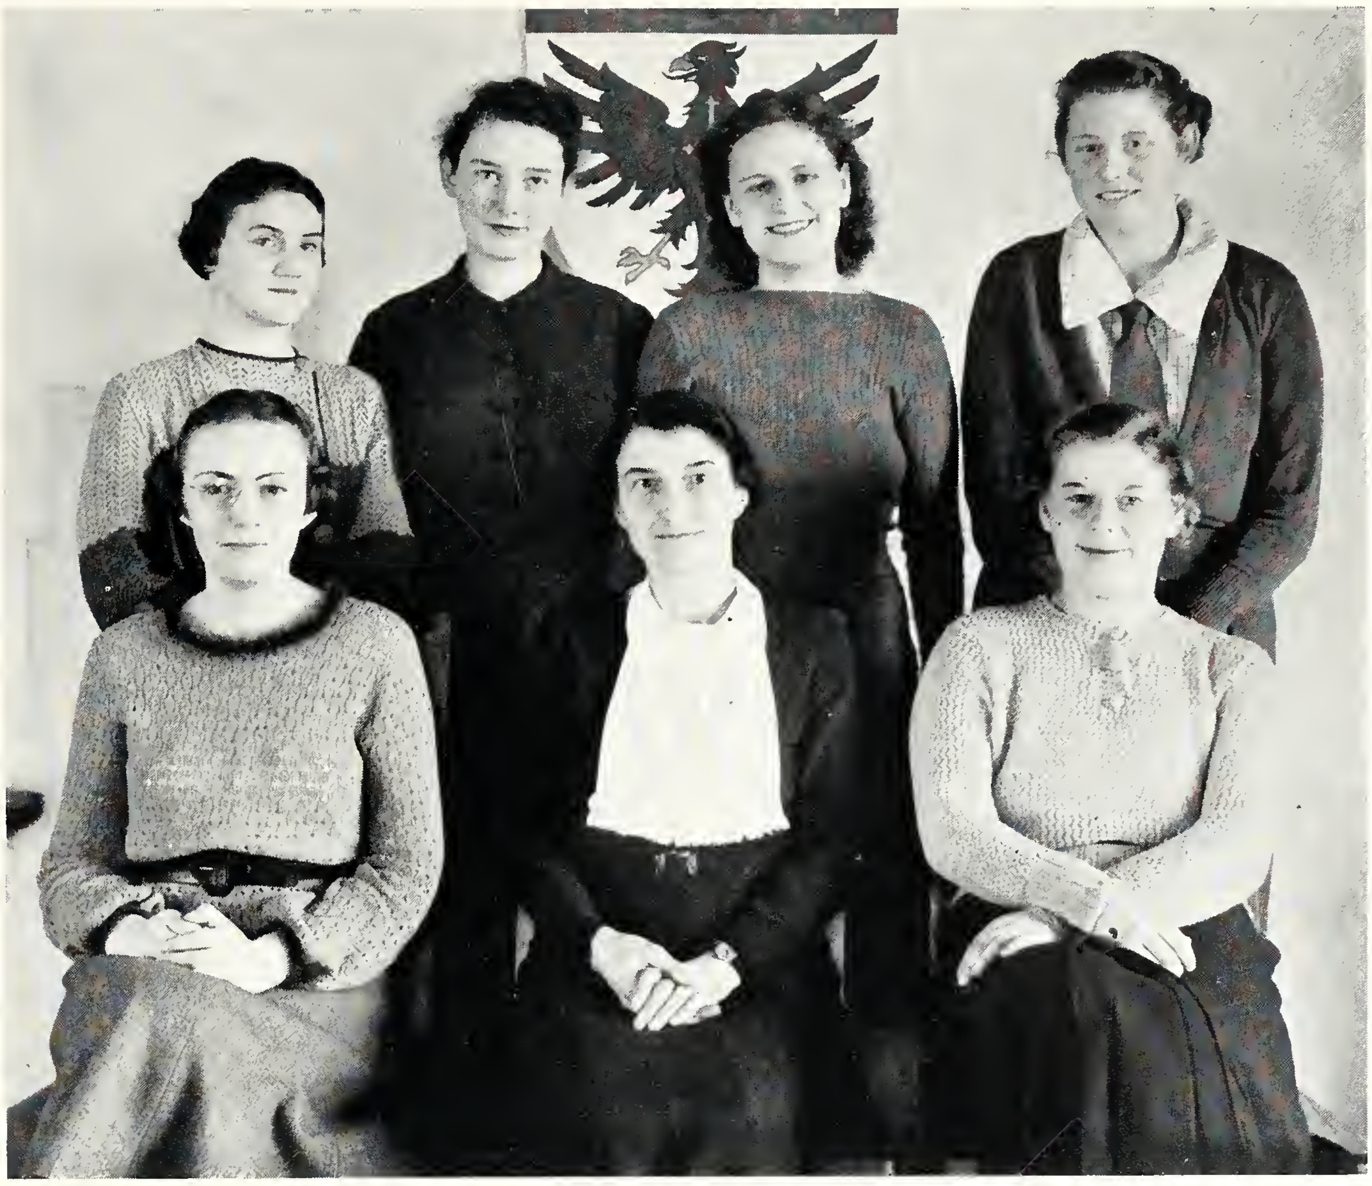
WOMEN'S DEBATING EXECUTIVE



Macklin, Kerr, Bidwell, Morrow
Ryan, Dr. Gaiser, Reuel

The Debating Society played a vital part in the life of McMaster's Women Students. It has completed a very full and diversified programme. It has conducted successful inter-year debates, exhibition debates, Co-Ed debates and one women's intercollegiate debate. It has contributed one representative to the I.U.D.L. Radio Debate. One of the most interesting features of the year was the reception and tea given for the women students in honor of Margaret Lawrence, prominent Canadian authoress.

An exhibition debate, "Resolved that the Building of the Road to Dundas is to be deplored," opened the activities for the year. Try-outs for the intercollegiate debate took the form of speeches on "It is better to be a Big Frog in a little puddle."

The Intercollegiate Exchange Debate introduced a new type of informal topic, "Resolved that professional women if so inclined should continue their careers after marriage." Doris Reuel and Norma Bidwell defeated the Queen's team at McMaster while Isabelle Ryan and Iolene Macklin lost to Varsity in Toronto.

Keen interest and holiday spirit characterized the first co-ed debate when it was proved without a doubt that there is a Santa Claus. Refreshments at the two Co-ed debates added an interesting note. Early in February a few hundred women students spent a charming afternoon listening to the vitally interesting lecture of Margaret Lawrence, entitled "The Super Women," supplemented by tasty refreshments.

In the inter-year series the Freshettes won from the Sophomes by default while the Seniors won the Junior-Senior debate. The Seniorettes won the inter-year finals from the Freshettes.

Doris Reuel was chosen to debate with Hugh Dalzell in an interesting feature of the year, a radio debate which was won by Western University.

The kind help and warm interest which its honorary president, Dr. Gaiser, gives to the club is greatly appreciated and she, along with the hard-working student executive, accomplished a successful debating year.

MODERN LITERATURE CLUB

Attig, Hancock, Chase, Broadhead, Ryan, Robertson, Gibson, Wallace-Jackson, Jackson, Gray, Hubbard
Laing, McNairn, Jamieson, Dunn, Ross, Smallman, Hall

The Modern Literature Club, one of the oldest clubs in McMaster, was formed for students interested in recent literary trends. For convenience the membership is restricted to about twenty members. Members are expected to give papers themselves on topics in which they are interested.

During the first term, B. Wallace-Jackson gave a paper on the poetry of C. Day Lewis; Julia Ross gave a paper on "Murder in the Cathedral" and other writings of T. S. Eliot. The club made a trip over to Toronto to see Jane Cowl in "First Lady."

The Club started off the second term by going to Toronto to see Nazimova in Ibsen's "Ghosts." At the next regular meeting Charles Dunn gave a talk on Dylan Thomas, Millie Hall gave readings from Noel Coward, and Barbara Gibson played a very recent Scherzo by Cowell. The next meeting was a party, and at the last meeting Jack Holmes, English teacher at Pickering College, was the speaker.

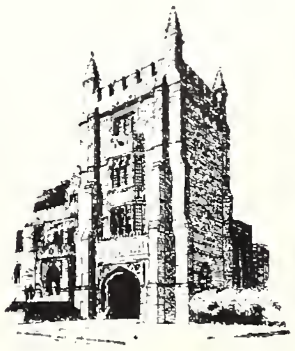
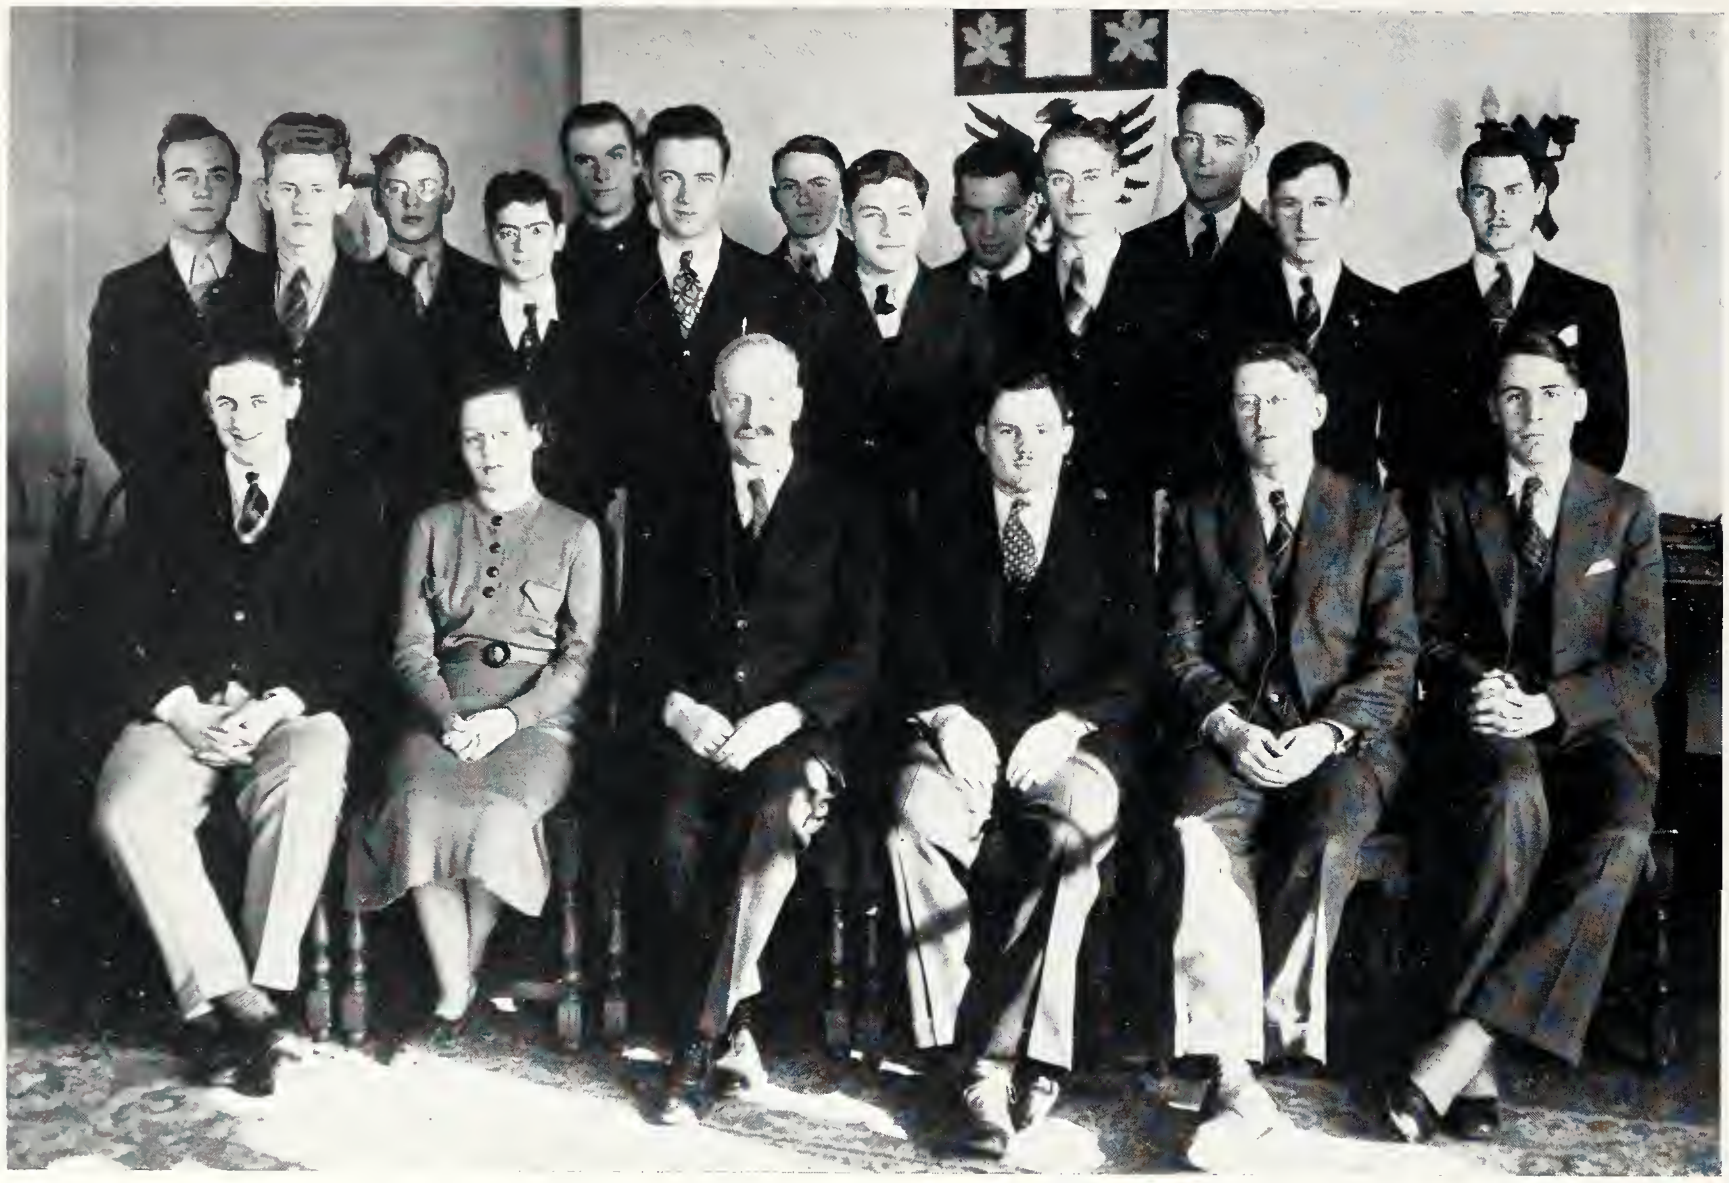
The activities of the Modern Language Club have been varied and interesting. La Cercle Francaise was entertained at its first reunion by Professor Freeman, who gave an informal talk and answered questions about France of to-day. In December we were delighted to have as our guests two actors of Paris—M. Pierre Jourdan and M. Gilbert Roland, who entertained a large assembly in Convocation Hall with sketches and recitations. In February our meeting consisted of discussions, games and songs. We all recall the hilarious time we had playing "Je fais ma malle." At the final meeting Professor Haden presented a fine talk on "Investigation of Speech Phenomena" and illustrated it by X-ray slides.

The German Club enjoyed a talk by David Playfair of year '37 on his trip to Germany last summer and many of his interesting experiences there. Another meeting took the form of an informal tea where many favorite German songs were enjoyed. The remaining meetings were composed of talks and songs.

Altogether the club has had a highly successful year. We gratefully acknowledge the assistance that the Faculty has given us in making it so successful.



MATHEMATICS CLUB



Watson, Johns, Parsons, McPherson, Goodfellow, Miller
Hillgartner, Rosenfeld, Richards, Lebovitch, Tweedle, Oates, Orr
Hamlin, Young, Dr. Findlay, Gilmore, Dr. Johns, Vogt

The year 1936-37 has been a most successful one for the Mathematics Club. Several splendid meetings have been held, with three excellent outside speakers addressing the club—Mr. Auld, former principal of Beamsville High School, Dr. Beatty, head of Mathematics department of Toronto University, and Jake Enns '35, first president of the club, all giving very interesting addresses. In addition several student papers have been presented.

The Mathematics Club has done much to further the association and interests of students in mathematics, and with three successful years behind, we look to the future with optimistic expectations.

McMASTER STUDENT VOLUNTEERS

Cameron, Nicholson, Beaverstock, Gordon, Morgan, Moore, Bentall
Armstrong, Lamb, Stovell, Ward, Stapleton
Baxter, Knapp, Hamilton, Rice, MacKinley, West
Prof. Orchard, Campbell, Coverdale, Loney, Fraser, Beatty, McKague, Daykin

The McMaster Student Volunteers have completed another successful year of Christian fellowship and service. The year's activities had a very happy beginning in a hike held by the M.S.V., M.M.C.U., to Tiffany Falls.

In the meetings held at the University the M.S.V. was fortunate in securing such speakers as Mr. George Osborne, Y.W.C.A. worker in China; Professor Johns; Mr. Mason, missionary from the Belgian Congo; Mr. Lockett of the Hamilton Normal School, and Professor Waters, who brought very inspiring messages.

Besides the regular meetings, the members of the M.S.V. have been actively engaged in extension work and have conducted church services and Young People's meetings, not only in Hamilton but also in outside points such as Stratford, Beamsville, Welland and Georgetown.

It has been the aim of the M.S.V. to enrich the spiritual life of the students through fellowship with Christ and in this way to contribute to the life of the University and the community.

During the year, plans have been made to unite the M.S.V., M.W.C.U. and the M.M.C.U. into one organization under the name of the McMaster Christian Union. Next year the work of the M.S.V. will be carried on by the M.C.U.

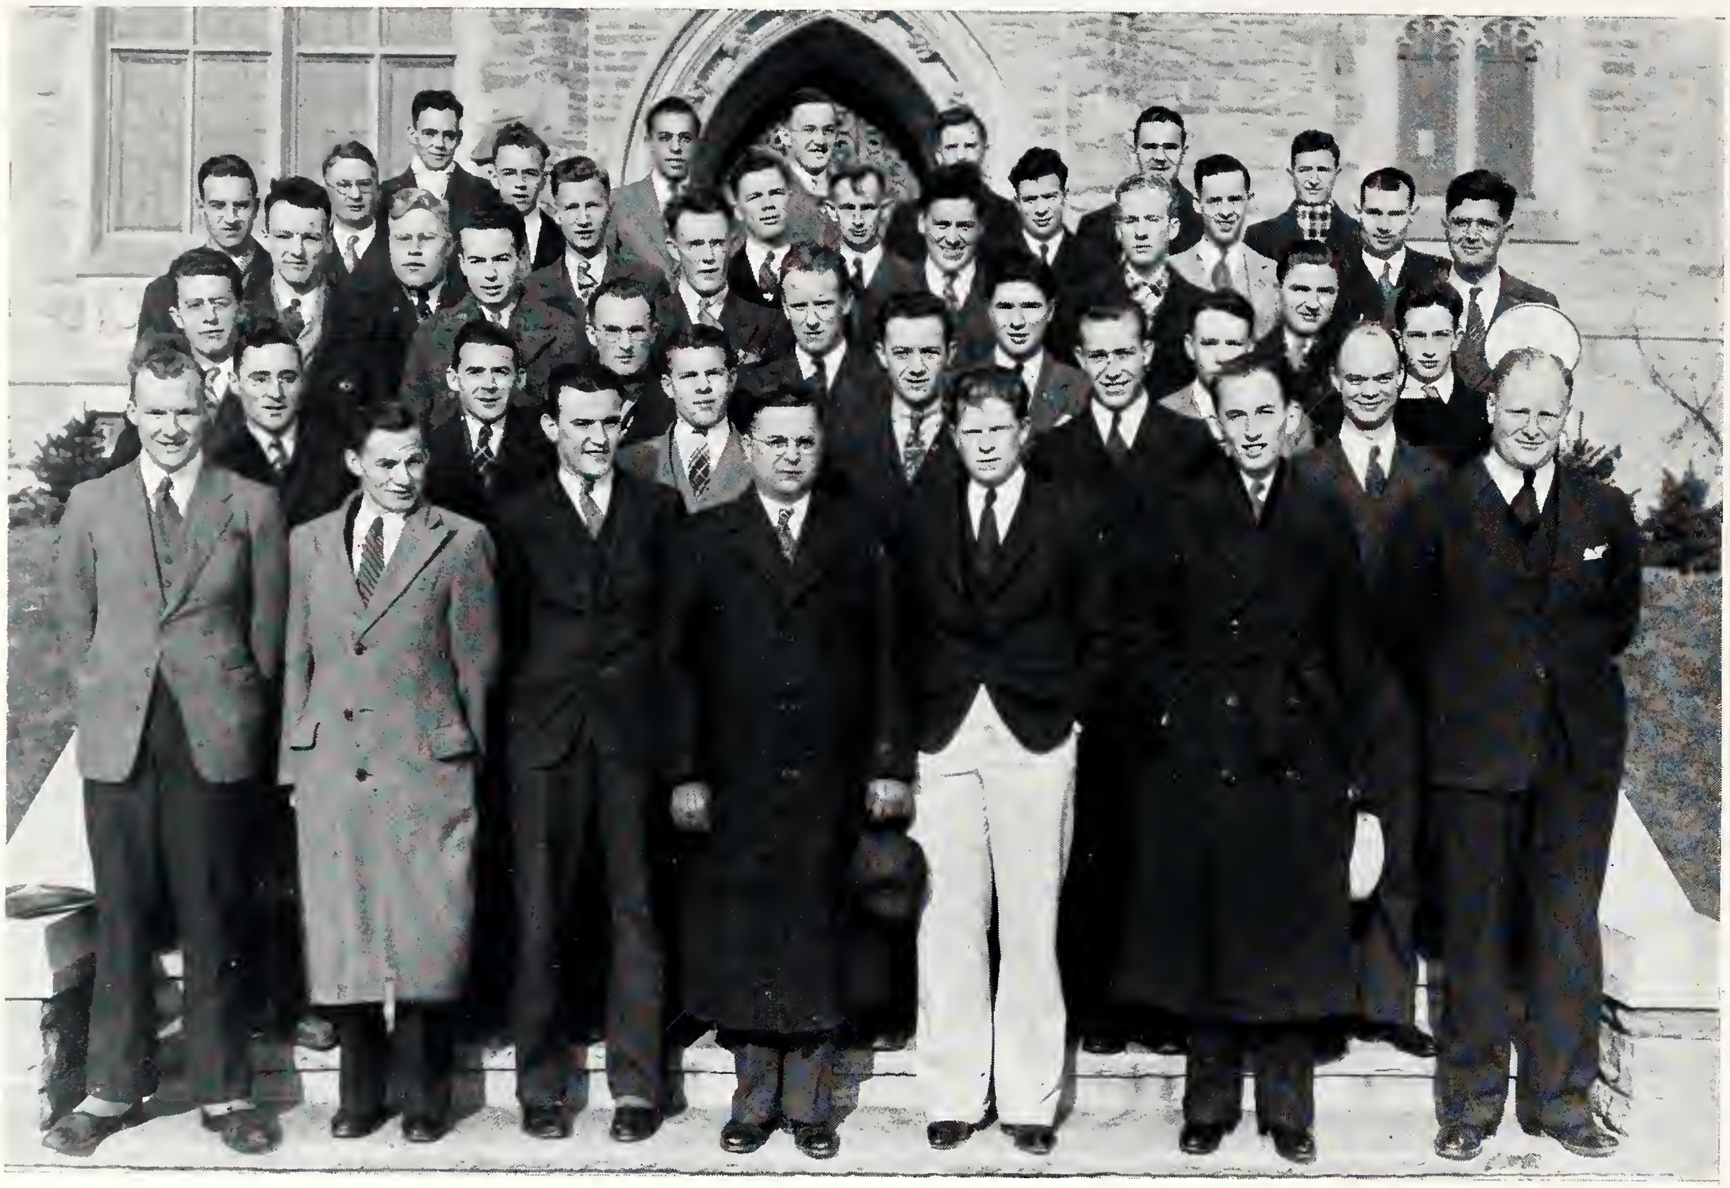
McMASTER MEN'S CHRISTIAN UNION



Nichols, Hitchon, Dabbs, Lamb, Cameron, Clark, Kirk, Baxter, MacKinley, Bruder, Bentall, McGregor
Champion, Houser, Nicholson, Smith, Carruthers, Cleator, Hill, Gordon
Tarcy, Rice, Knapp, Bruce, Kent, Young, Rodger, Hamill, Johnson
Stovell, Armstrong, Smith, Richards, Leal, West
Stephens, Baldson, Harrop, Dr. Warren, Hamilton, Morgan, Precious

The M.M.C.U. is an organization consisting of students who are interested in the current problems of the Christian World. It has grown more active during its career at Hamilton and its membership has shown a constant increase. Interest is held by the efforts of the executive and the ready help of the faculty procuring capable speakers, the appreciation of which is shown by the consistent attendance of members at the meetings.

As last year several Sunday afternoon and evening meetings were held at Edwards Hall, which were followed by enlightening discussion periods. It is encouraging to see the interest taken in these discussion groups where the students are able to air their views and ask questions on topics which may concern them.

The speakers this year have been of a high calibre. Such men as Judge Mott, Dr. Hutton and Dr. Hunter represent typical men who have given their time to address the meetings. One of the high lights of the year came when the Fyfe Committee, which is made up of representatives of the Christian Unions of McMaster, procured Dr. Stanley Jones to speak.

This year the M.M.C.U., M.W.C.U. and M.S.V. had a joint meeting at which it was decided that more work could be accomplished if the three unions combined to form one organization. The new society is to be known as the McMaster Christian Union. It is hoped that the united efforts will give greater impetus to the Christian work of this University.

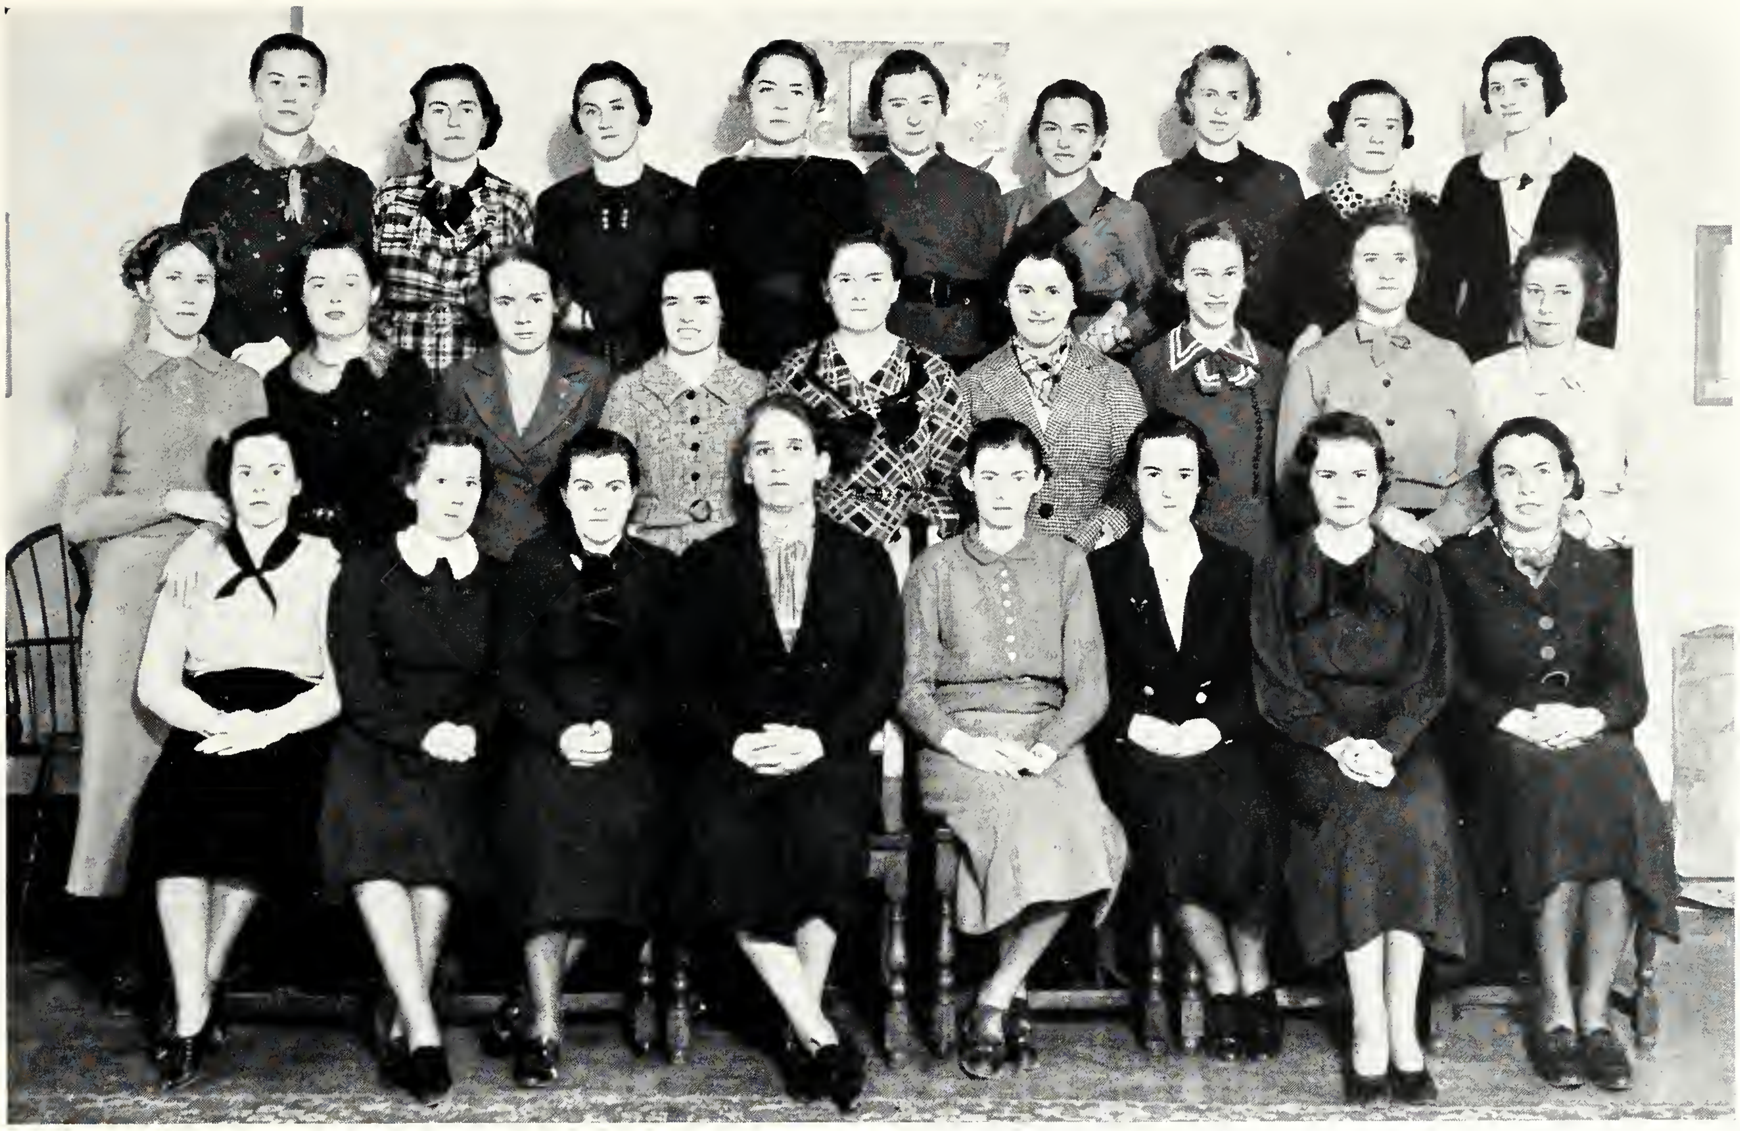
McMASTER WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN UNION



Frazer, V. Chapman, Macklin, Fish, Houghton, Schnurr, Penfold, Eubank, Loney
Wilkes, Dawes, Findlay, Coverdale, Beatty, Boutilier, Walker, Campbell, Gibson
Courtois, McKague, M. Chapman, Mrs. Burke, Jamieson, Traver, Raithby, Thomas

President	Marian Chapman
Vice-President	Ethel McKague
Secretary-Treasurer	Marjorie Traver

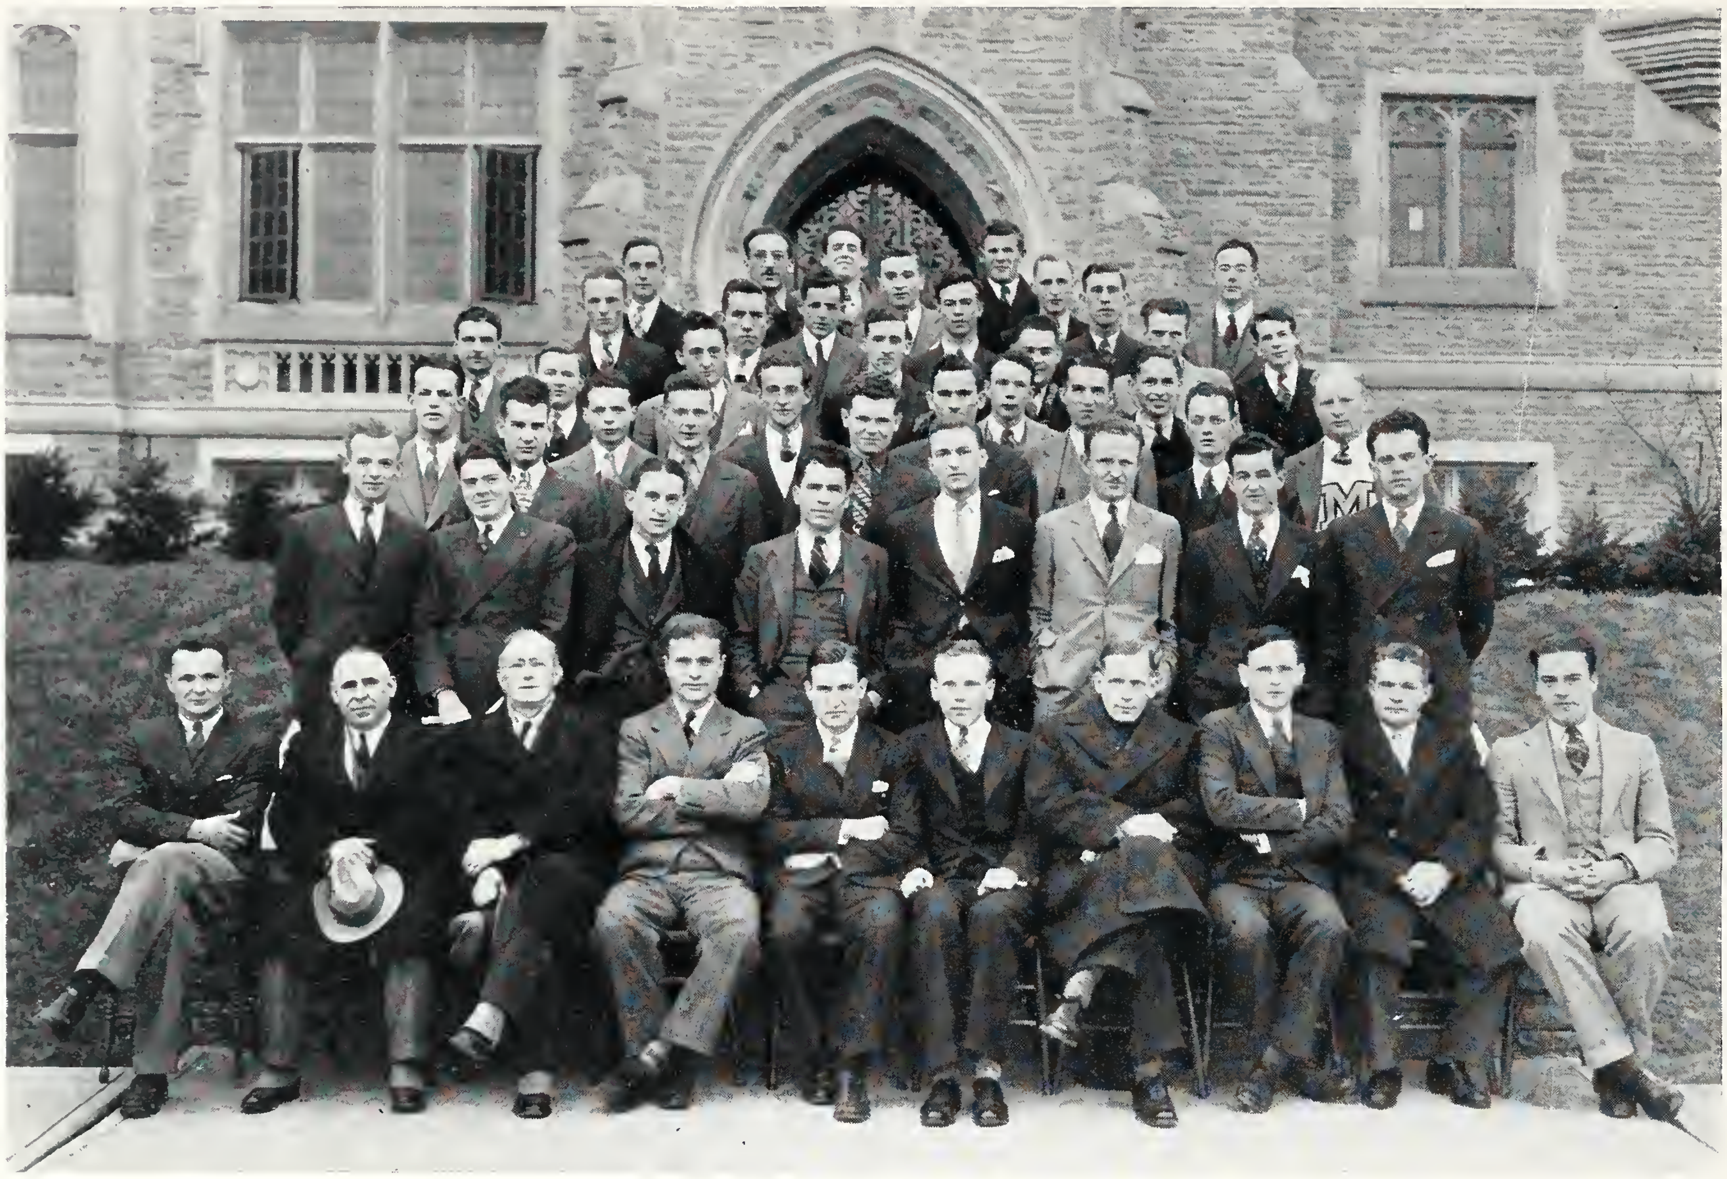
The McMaster Women's Christian Union has played a very necessary part in the activities of those girls who have sought to enrich their spiritual lives through fellowship with Christ and with one another.

During the first term of the past year the organization met every second Thursday to study problems confronting Christians in foreign lands. A capable speaker was engaged for each meeting who not only interested but inspired his listeners. Aside from regular meetings the girls went on several field trips to charitable institutions in the city where they brought happiness not only to those whom they visited but to themselves as well. An active interest was taken in a knitting project for the city hospital. Long may this work continue!

After due thought, the executives of the three religious organizations, i.e., the McMaster Student Volunteers, the McMaster Men's Christian Union, and the McMaster Women's Christian Union have deemed it advisable to unite in order to add impetus to the growth of Christian fellowship among the students.

POLITICAL ECONOMY CLUB



Dingwall, Levy, Shea, Lynch, Pennell, Barry, Dales, Ray, Winter
Stapleton, Firth, Mahoney, Crouch, Sturgeon, Wyatt
Bryant, Kilgour, Franklin, Kneale, Rodger, Dent
Kendall, Cariss, Binkley, Ruby, Finch, Precious

Main, Wray, Garthson, McAvoy, McKinley, Reekie, Dennis, Wickett
Shaver, Prof. Hurd, Prof. Michell, Lennie, Langs, Main, Dean Taylor, Mr. Haak, Mr. Henry, Turnbull

It has been the constant aim of the Men's Political Economy Club to foster a larger field of vision among the students in political economy courses. For this purpose the club has developed as an impartial organization willing to listen to and criticize any theory or system of thought. The speakers this year have been men outstanding in political science and its allied subjects. The following have spoken this year: A. F. W. Plumptre, H. Molson, F. A. McGregor, G. Keen, D'Arcy Marsh, P. Martin, F. C. Biggar, C. P. Fell.

The Club owes much of its success to the untiring interest of Professors Michell, Taylor and Hurd. Through their influence and co-operation the Club has been able to secure speakers of a high calibre. The club seems destined to grow in popularity and numbers through the interest which ex-members of the club have shown this year.

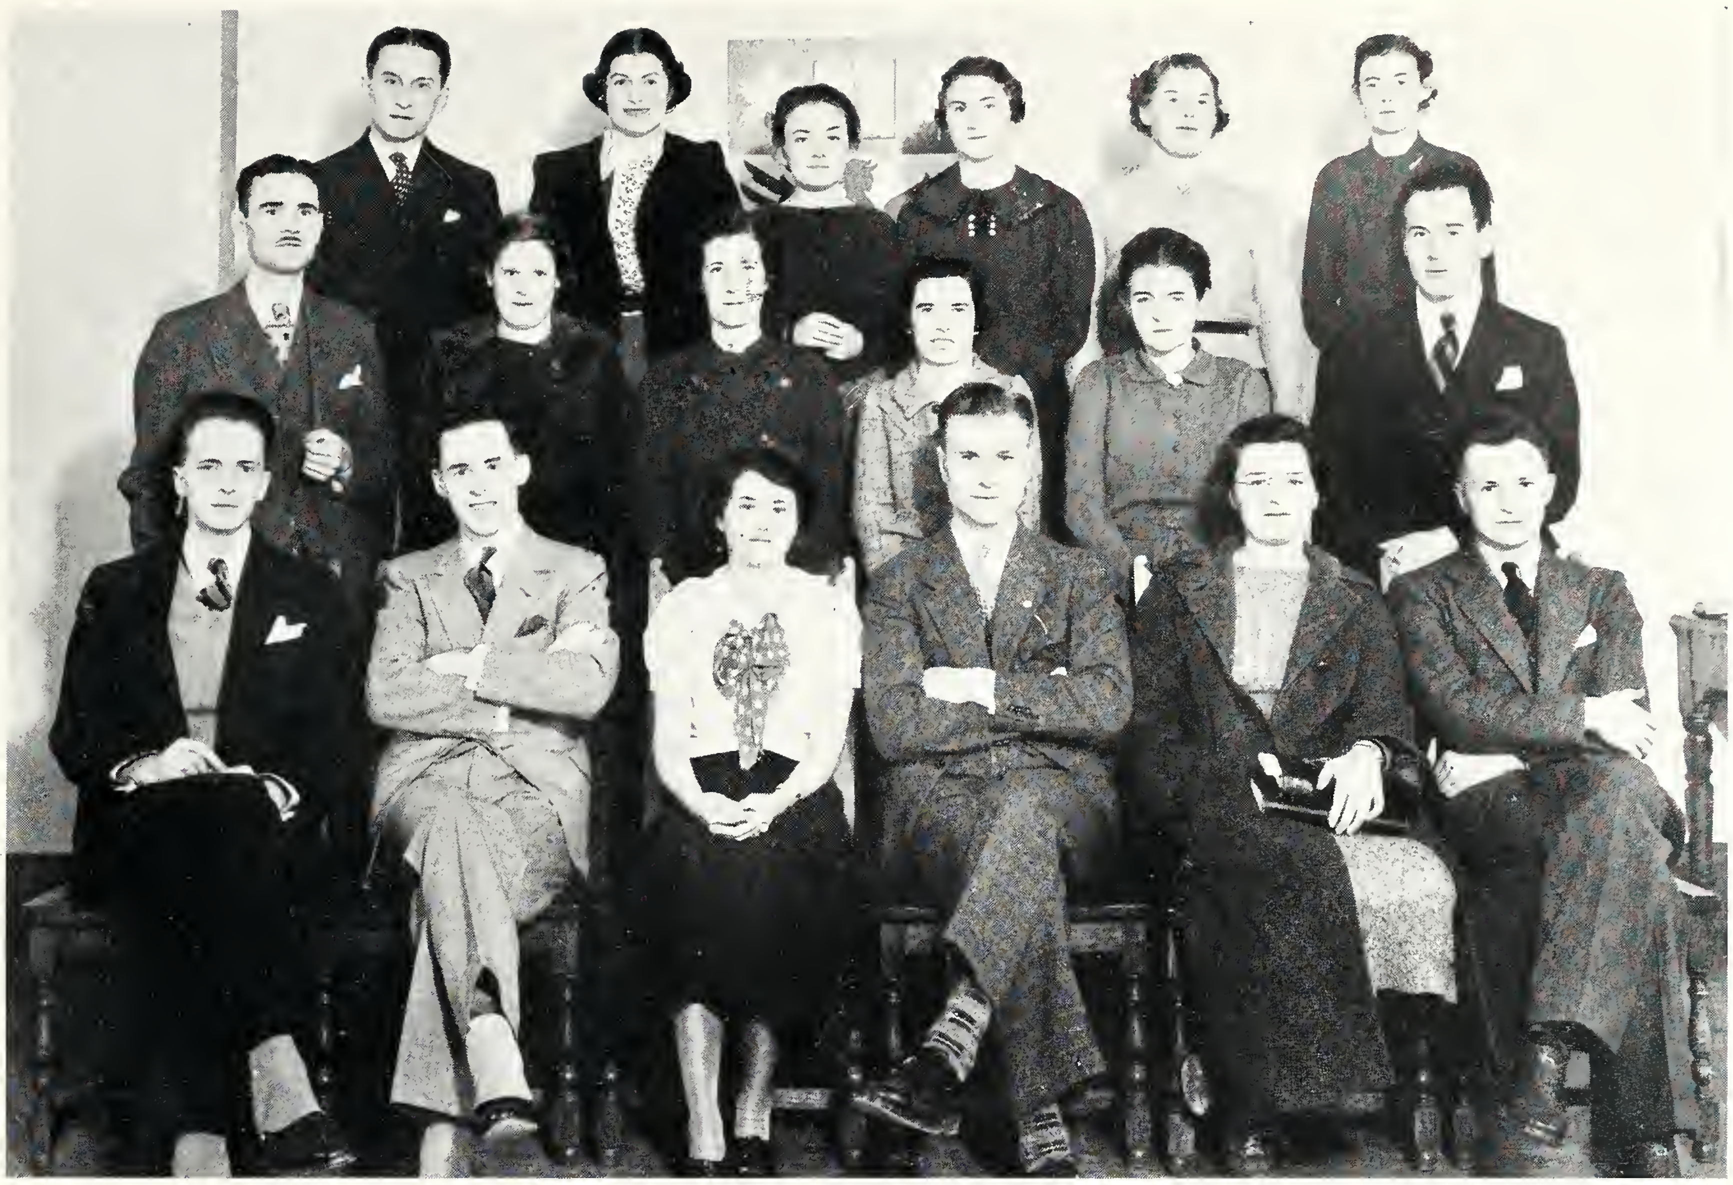
INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB



Garthson, M. Simon, Hall, Macklin, Reuel, Jamieson
Bruder, Simon, Viens, Coverdale, Gray, Winter
Robertson, Bentall, Craven, Lennie, Pearson, Shaver

The International Relations Club is a study group which meets from time to time to study matters of importance to the family of nations. The club undoubtedly accomplishes a great deal toward the end of arousing a greater interest in, and a better understanding of, international affairs whether political, commercial, or geographical. The club was fortunate in procuring such speakers as Prof. Salmon, D'Arcy Marsh, Prof. H. L. MacNeil! and Mr. W. G. Whiteside. Student papers of a very fine quality were given by George Neufeld, Ashton Winter and Lloyd Garthson. The Women's Club joined with the Men's for the two largest meetings of the year and very generously provided a social hour at the end of each.

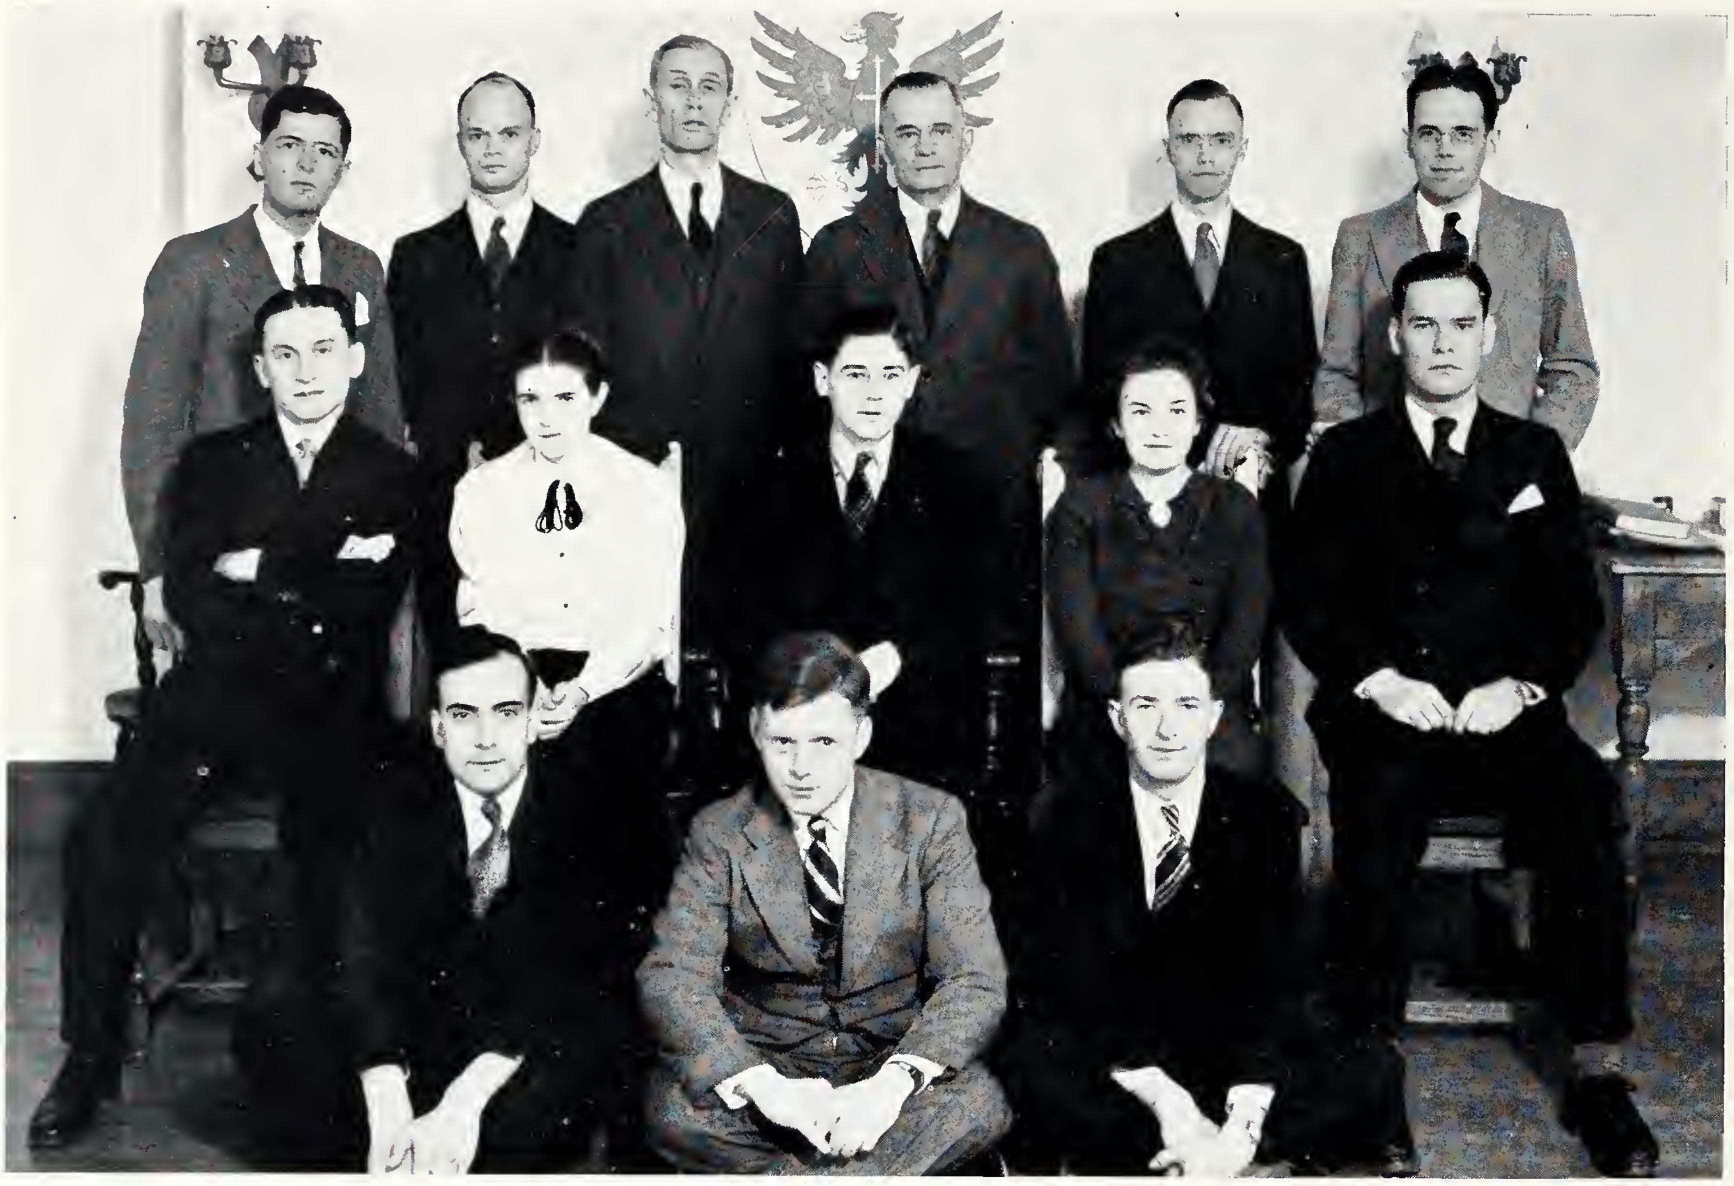
PHILOSOPHY CLUB



Gordon, West, Prof. Waters, Dr. Bensen, Keeler, Ferguson
Garthson, Gray, Dulmage, Hall, Potts
Ward, Young, McGregor

Owing to the genuine interest and ardent support on the part of the members, the Philosophy Club enjoyed a successful year aided by the active and enthusiastic support of the executive and the advice of Dr. Bensen, the president, found the task of arranging the meetings an easy and pleasant one.

The programmes were quite varied. Professor Waters gave the paper at the opening meeting on the subject of scientific method in Philosophy; its use, field of application and limitations. The members of the club were especially interested in the implications for ethics and religion. At the second meeting the subject of epistemology was presented by four students, the discussion which followed was so engaging that the participants became oblivious to the passing of time until the midnight hour was past. Dr. Brillinger of the Ontario Mental Hospital gave an interesting address at a well-attended meeting. His theme was the interrelation of physical and mental functions and its significance for mental health. Professor Havelock of Toronto was asked to speak at a joint meeting of the Philosophical and Classical Clubs on the field of ancient Greek philosophy. For the next gathering of the club, Judge Wearing was secured to talk on the subject, "Logic in Judicial Procedure."

The crowning meeting of the year was arranged to meet the highest aspirations of the philosopher. Dr. Bensen was asked to present a paper on the subject, "My Conceptions of the Universe." This was thoroughly enjoyed by all who heard him.

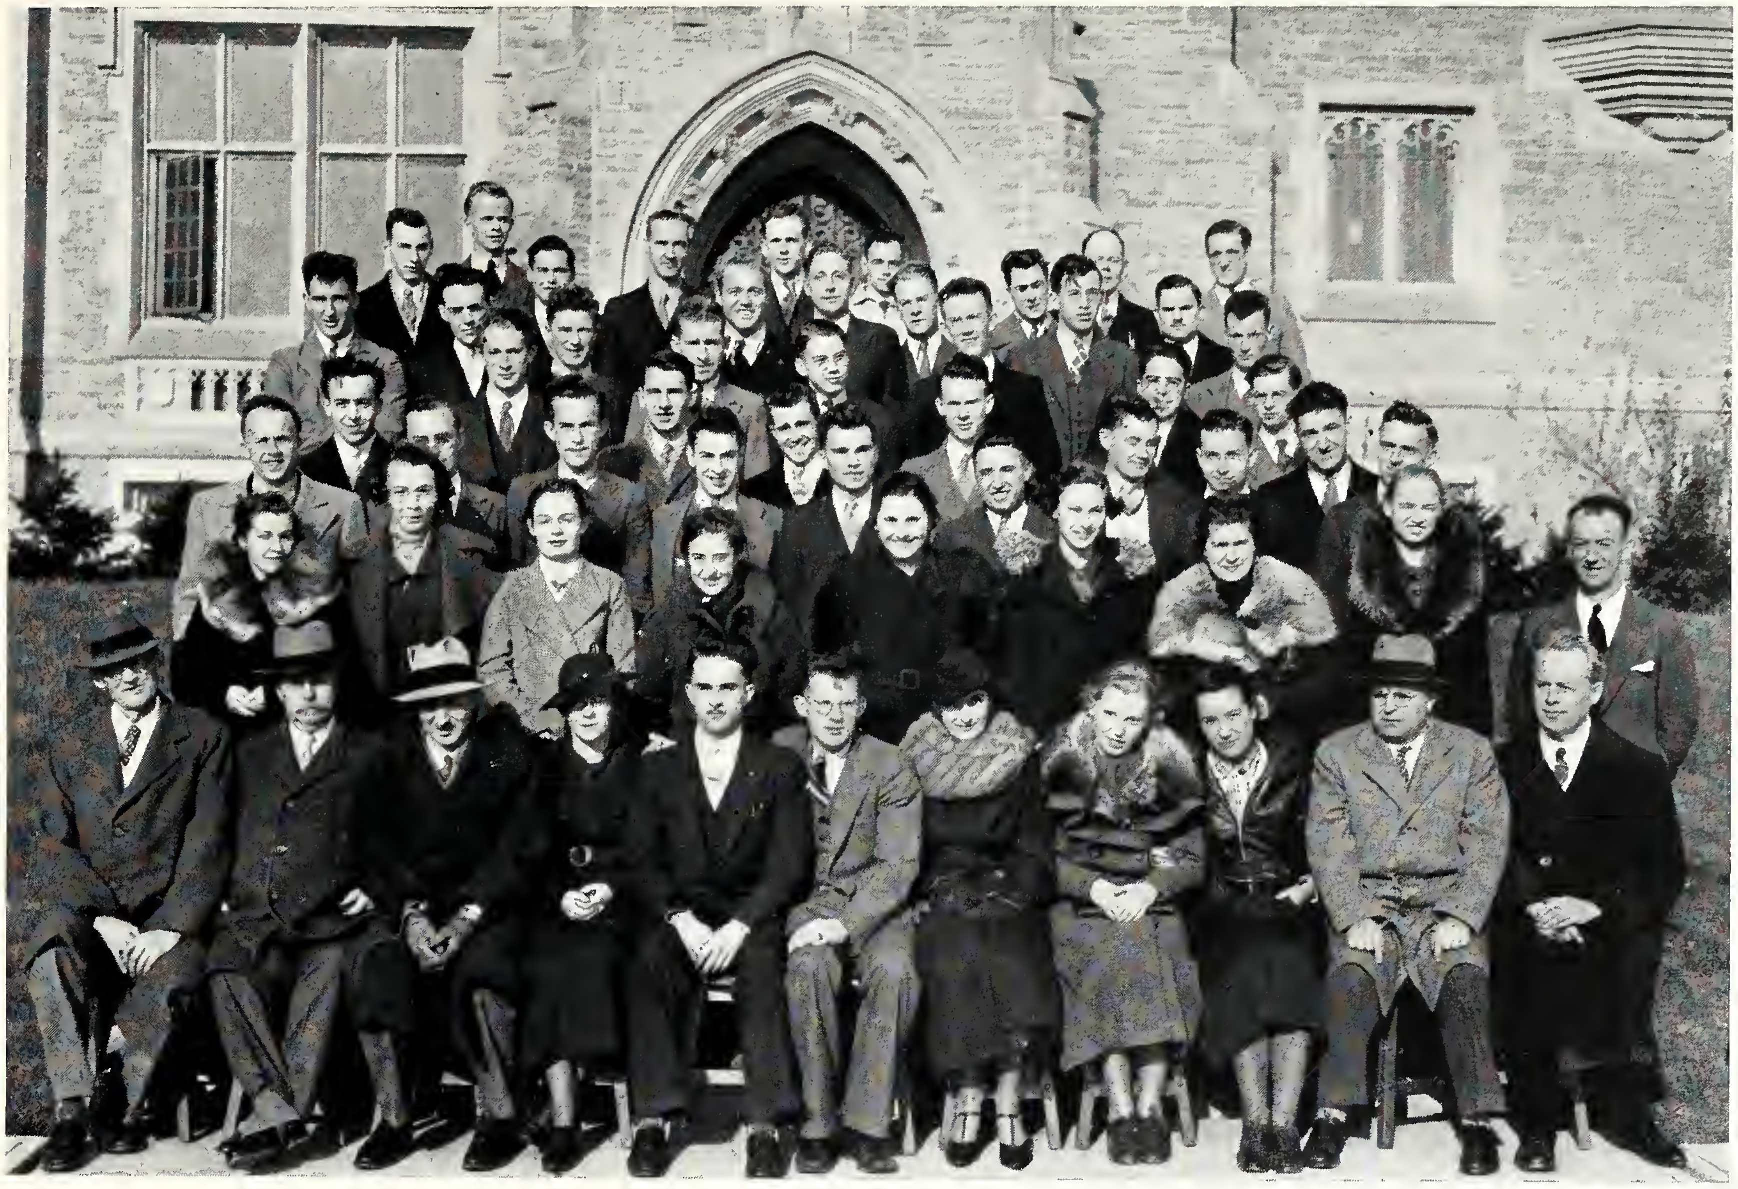
SCIENCE CLUB



Haist, Gray, McIndoe, Wingfield, Clausen, Hitchon, Berry, Robbins, Rosenblatt
Hardy, Jousse, McAlpine, Hutchinson, Nancekivell, Bridgeman, Moyer, Macfarlane, Gilmore, Jury
Burcher, Sheldrake, Jolly, Gold, Hewitt, Shaw, Stapley, Johnson, Judd

Prof. Walker, Dr. McNairn, Dr. McLay, Dr. Forward, Tatham, Richardson, Dr. Gaiser, Pasel, Pew, Dr. Warren, Dr. Dawes

This enterprising Club has just completed a year marked by the most varied activities in its history. Guided by an energetic executive willingly assisted by its honorary president and the rest of the science faculty, the Science Club has gained an enviable reputation as an under graduate organization.

Speakers at regular meetings included Mr. E. T. Steine of the Grand River Development Commission; Mr. J. A. Jones, electrical engineer from Canadian Westinghouse, and Mr. E. J. Dyce, provincial apiarist, as well as our own professors and students.

The major field trip to London incorporated an inspection of the Kellogg plant, a joint luncheon with the Western Science Club, a tour of Western University Buildings and a rugby game.

An innovation in the club this year was the Science Club banquet. The dinner toasts and entertainment were followed by educational and entertaining sound pictures presented by the Shell Oil Company.

The highlights of the year was the presentation of the fourth Exhibition of Experimental Science. Both the morning and the evening showings attracted large numbers of interested citizens. Hamilton Hall was filled with interesting exhibits carefully prepared and demonstrated by science students.

May the Club continue to prosper and provide entertaining and educational scientific exhibitions.

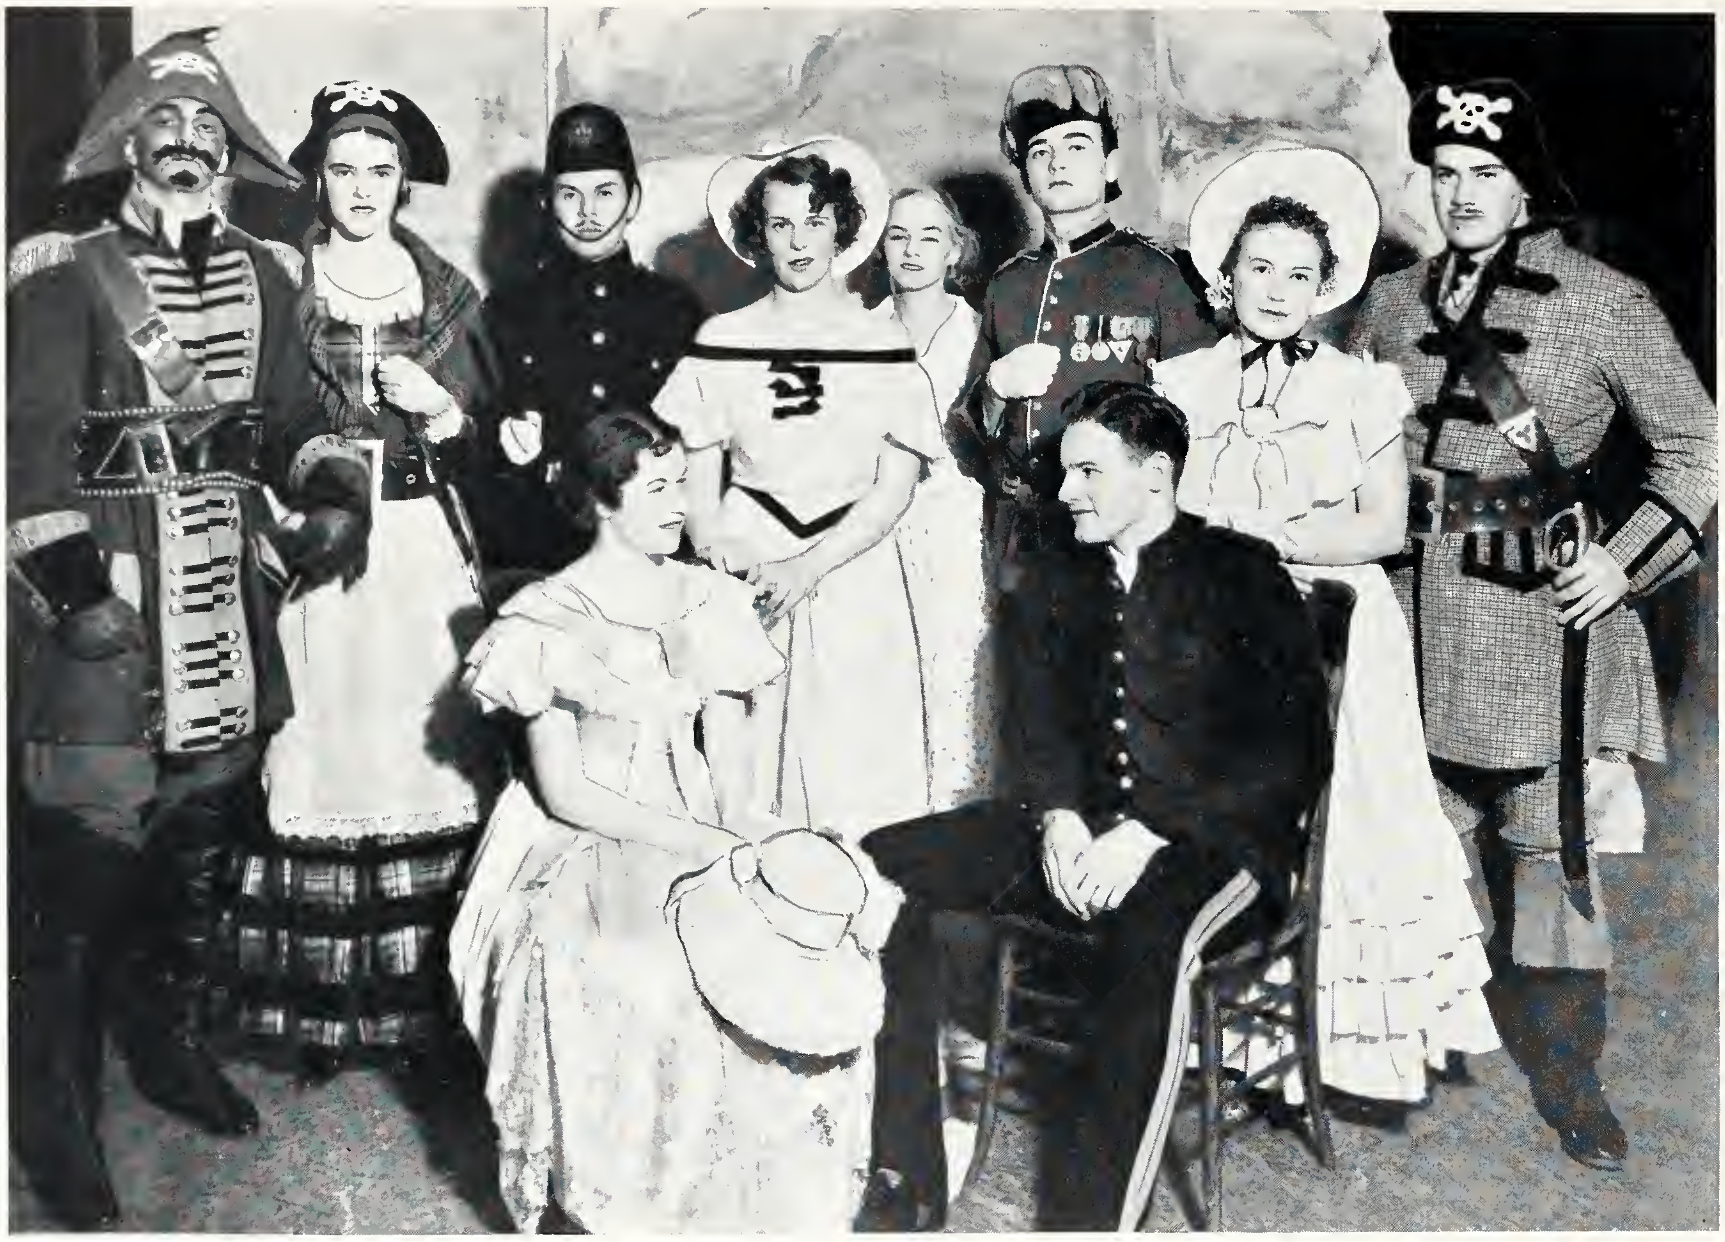
OPERATIC SOCIETY



"The Pirates of Penzance"

The work of the society this year consisted in the rehearsing and producing of the Gilbert and Sullivan Operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance." The Opera was under the personal musical direction of Dr. Graham Godfrey; and the stage direction was handled by Mrs. E. C. McLean of Guelph.

The success of this year's production was largely due to the earnest co-operation met with at all times. Dr. C. E. Burke and Mr. G. M. Henry gave freely of their time and ability in aiding the executive of the society. Stage management, advertising, ticket selling and orchestra duties were in the hands of several undergraduates and to them and to the members of the actual cast and chorus of the opera much of its success belongs.

1936-1937—A Retrospect

"The memory of the past will stay and half our joys renew."

For you who have taken part in this year's activities at McMaster, this resumé will recall many gay festivities, happy gatherings, and momentous occasions.

For year '40, the hospitable house party sponsored by the Senior girls for the Freshettes, the Faculty Reception and Dean Carpenter's welcome, the Frosh picnic when tomatoes and eggs were supplanted by weiners, rolls, and coffee at Webster's Falls—at which every Freshette in residence was present, establishing a precedent—the Treasure Hunt with clues lacking, initiations when the Sophs got their share of mud, a pajama parade, and to call a truce, the Soph-Frosh banquet; Alex. MacKay's excellent toast-mastering will not soon fade into oblivion.

The current session brought new faculty members to our campus: Dr. Forward, Prof. Hart, Mr. Waters, Mr. Tapscott, and Dr. Morton. To Chancellor Whidden came an honorary Doctor of Divinity from Victoria College. This year, however, must also write in its pages of the death of McMaster's well loved Principal of Theology, Dr. John MacNeill.

The Track and Field meet early in October was a huge success; the Chancellor's medals were won by the two highest point scorers, Ken McAdam '49 and Cath. Miller '38. Something new and vital was started—a Gym Fund which has received very definite support from the large percentage of students who do want a gymnasium. The brains behind the machine is Helen Hardy, the founder.

Dramatics records a triumphant season; Antigone, a Greek play, ably presented by the Classical Club. Then Maxwell Anderson's renowned "Elizabeth the Queen"—Dorothy Foster's and Charles Linton's fine performances will long remain vivid in the minds of those who went, saw, and came away satisfied. The four year plays wended their way to the front, and the Juniors received the shield for a well acted comedy, "The Torchbearers".

The Women's Student Body reception featured a highly dramatic war play made doubly interesting because of the curtain which wouldn't close. Margaret Lawrence, author of "School of Femininity" was the treat offered by the Debating Society. The Dominion Championship just escaped the grasp of Mac's debaters.

The Junior Prom was an hilarious good time for everyone with balloons, sweet music, and food. December brought the Mac Formal, bigger and better than ever; open houses at Edwards Hall and Wallingford, co-ed dinners. Year parties taking the form of anything from picnics to roller skating frolics were enlivened by the debut of year songs. '38 led the procession with a tune which swept the campus.

Grad. Homecoming! What an exhilarating week-end with some good basketball played between grads. and under grads. Here's a cheer for the hockey team which in spite of the serious indisposition of several of its chief players, won the Intermediate Inter-collegiate Championship.

McMaster has been visited by some brilliant speakers at Chapel and at the University Services: Dr. E. Stanley Jones, Hugh Redwood, Bishop Seager, Dr. Pidgeon and Dr. Phillips. Music has abounded this year, concerts at which John Guerney, Gwendolyn Hale, and the Singers' Guild were heard with enthusiasm, the two University choirs which sang at Chapel, student assembly, musicale, and over the radio, under Dr. Wiles' capable direction. The annual Bandemonium received wild applause from the students who thus showed that they appreciate the Band and its music.

"Snakes and snails and puppy dogs tails" were all on display at the Science Conversat which took place in February. People from great distances came to view the different exhibits which were highly educational and informative.

Gilbert and Sullivan again proved their unexcelled popularity when the Choral Society sang "The Pirates of Penzance" to two crowded houses. The Athletic Banquet wound up the last threads of a busy year. In inter-year sports the Sophs pulled up in first place followed closely by the militant Frosh.

And so, "Time goes, you say? Ah no!
Alas, Time stays, we go."

McMASTER ATHLETICS

During the last year, a total of eighteen athletic activities were indulged in by the men of McMaster including Rugby, Basketball, Hockey, Boxing, Wrestling, Fencing, Badminton, Golf, Track, Harrier Hiking, Soccer, Swimming, Water Polo, Tennis, Skiing, Rifle, Shooting and Ping Pong.

Our Football Team lost by close margins to O.A.C. who went on to the Canadian Intermediate Championship. Many men were lost through graduation and on the whole, the team made a very fine showing. Coach Glen Small is to be complimented on his successful rebuilding of the team and it is to be hoped that next year's results will repay his efforts. At that McMaster has topped the league five times in seven years, losing in 1932 and 1936 and tieing in 1934 and losing the play-off in overtime.

The Basketball Team again won the Senior "A" Championship to win the new Professor Baker Trophy. The four league games with R.M.C. and O.A.C. were won by comfortable margins. Teams played in the United States this year included Alfred, University of Buffalo, Fredonia State Teachers, Buffalo State and Brockport. McMaster was defeated in all five of these games by close scores. A highlight of the season was the victory over Varsity I champions of the Senior group on the Westdale floor. A later game with the same team resulted in a reverse. The Intermediate squad had a good season finishing second to Varsity II in their league. The first team has won seven championships in nine years.

McMaster this year won her first Intercollegiate Hockey Championship. Grouped with Western and O.A.C. they played through the season without a loss. In the Senior City League our sextet was able to reach the playoffs after a very creditable showing. At the first of the season a trip was made to University of Michigan and although defeated, Coach Fred Veale's men made a good showing.

The Senior Track Team did not do well this season at the Meet in Montreal nor in the Intermediate—but this was expected after the general exodus of our great Track Team of '32-'35.

A feature of "Mac" sports this year was the creditable showing of the Boxing, Wrestling and Fencing Teams in the assault at Guelph. On points our team finished second. Ham Gosse won the 165 lb. boxing championship and John Carruthers won the heavyweight grunt and groan title.

Swimming received a big boost when a dual meet was held with men's and women's Intercollegiate Meets held concurrently.

Since winning our first championship in Basketball in 1929, McMaster has carried off 36 official and unofficial championships in ten different sports.

CORONATION YEAR

On May 12, 1937, George VI will be crowned KING, and the Spectator joins with all the British Dominions and the Mother Country in celebrating this memorable event.

In 1846 when the Spectator first appeared, Victoria the Good had been nine years on the Throne of England.

During the ninety years which have since elapsed the Spectator has endeavored to play its part in promoting the cause of Empire Unity and Loyalty, and in advancing the interests of this Dominion.

The reserve power that is built right into a Westinghouse is of very real importance in comparing refrigerator values . . . For Westinghouse Super-Power means dependable food protection no matter how hot the weather may get . . . It means greater operating economy too, because its percentage of operating time is reduced by the extra power . . . And, most important, it means extra years of service, since the mechanism is never operating under a strain to keep up with the refrigeration requirements. Ask your Westinghouse dealer to prove these facts to you by actual demonstration.

To round out the year, the Classical Club joined the theological students in a visit on March 16th to the galleries of the Royal Ontario Museum of Archaeology. Dr. C. T. Currelly, director of the Museum, conducted the party and gave a fascinating gallery-talk.

Each year as it passes removes us farther from the age of the ancients; but it is the aim of the Classical Club to keep alive the cultural spirit which was its chief glory and remains the inspiration of all that is best in our own civilization.
